Initiatives:

Since June 2025 the Housing Authority of the City of Milwaukee (HACM) Public Safety Department has distributed more than 1,100 Public Safety Event Response Magnets to residents across our developments. The magnets provide guidance on how to respond to both high-priority and low-priority events, including when to contact law enforcement directly and when to call HACM Public Safety. By placing this essential information in residents' homes, the department is reinforcing its commitment to safety, preparedness, and timely response.
