Re: C.I. File NO. 1048-2017-122

Dear Ms. Gipson:

Received the letter and is requesting a hearing.

I would like to know the meaning of discretionary immunity, and what statute does it fall under.

Because there was no record prior to
May 17, 2017 does not exempt the city,
I'm the one that notified the city

I didn't cause the metal to stick up in the road and feel the city should pay me because my car was damaged. There was people in the car when it happened.

I talked to you and brought pictures to show you and you stated "it will be about three months before I hear anything. This happens in June 17, 2017 and I received a letter stating the city is not liable

Check with the Department of Public Works they should have a record that they came out twice after I reported to repair the road to you.

Sincerely
Jimmy Wood

To Whom It may concern;

On May 17, 2017 around 8:30 AM, I was going East on Teutonia & Chambers, when the light changed I hit a round object sticking up in the road. I called immediately to report the incident.

There were two people in the car with me.

I have pictures on my phone to show damage to my transmission from the object that was in the road.

I received a filing claim on May 20, 2017
