

Brief Bio:

Ramona Williams, MSW, APSW , Program Coordinator, Elder Abuse

She is a mastered degree social worker. She has worked in social services, specifically geriatrics 25+years. through Milwaukee County Department on Aging and other agencies previous to that. She has expertise and experience in aging, domestic violence, family caregiver issues, family dynamics and mental health and is highly involved in advocating for and representing the needs of older adults in this community. Ramona has served on community advisory boards, taskforces, workgroups and committees for a variety of agencies and community based organizations for the years including the Alzheimer's Association, Wisconsin Alzheimer's Institute, Dementia Care Network, Challenging Behavior Taskforce, UWM School of Social Welfare Field Advisory Board and others. She currently oversees the elder abuse and protective services response for the county of Milwaukee, for individuals 60 years and older, through the Department on Aging.