Subject: Re: This Is It! - Historic Designation

Hi Andrew,

I wanted to follow up on my application. I have been contacted by Mike D'Mamato, former alderman, and Dan Lee, of Van Buren Mgmt., asking to remove the designation from consideration. They have explained that a historic preservation at this time would limit their growth plan and ultimately not honor This Is It in a substantial way. I agree with their insight and would like to work more closely with them to pay homage.

Is it possible to remove the application from next week's agenda?

I am sorry for the last minute change and am very thankful to how much work your team has put into this.

Thank you,

Hi Sydni,

Just a heads up that the This Is It! designation application was received in our office. We've been researching the property and business to gather information for a complete application submittal and have now processed the application. The designation will be heard at the June 2nd Historic Preservation Commission meeting (just in time for Pride Month!). Our Administrative Assistant will be in touch with additional information about the meeting.

If you have any questions beforehand, please be in touch. Otherwise, we'll send over a copy of our designation report when it is completed.

Thanks,
