Hello everyone,

Once again at 8pm on 7-3-15 pedal tavern rode down 3rd street which is a residential street.

Not sure which is a greater nuance the presence of the pedal tavern, or their continued disregard of their agreement to not ride down residential street, or the disrespect of its residents.

Hello Jose,

I live in Walker's Point and am bothered by the constant presence of pedal taverns. In addition to being dangerous traffic obstructions, the noise level they produce from both the constant screaming and loud music is disruptive and obnoxious. I live by a few bars (Sabbatic, Steny's, etc.) and am never bothered by their patrons, except when the pedal tavern rolls through. I feel the pedal taverns do not belong in residential neighborhoods.

Thank you for allowing me to share my concerns.

Dear Jose',

It is becoming quite apparent that the popularity of Walker's Point is becoming a popular place to come and create commerce. Investors are prospecting the growth and potential of refurbishing warehouses and businesses such as restaurants and small shops are becoming the norm.

As to the growth and popularity, come new issues that both city government and residents need to contend with such as parking and navigating through the neighborhood. Concerning parking, there are a few who think it is ok to double park. Such problems exist with the school buses at 2:30 and one bar in particular: Steny's.

Tonight, returning home, I was travelling 2nd street going north bound. As I came up to National Avenue Steny's buses were parked on the street. One was to the curb but the other was double parked. There is a left turn lane only and with my luck a few cars in that lane waiting to turn left. I was then forced to carefully navigate between this mess.

Unfortunately, I didn't make; causing my rear view mirror to snap forward. When I complained to one of the bouncers that the bus was illegally parked he informed me I was wrong. If the rear view mirror gets ripped off, it will cost me around $500.00. Replacements of glass or mirrors are expensive and I do know the cost because of the chronic car break ins from a few summers ago.

We need parking enforcement down here patrolling South 2nd and around our residential area. Illegal parking is on the rise. I don't see parking enforcement down here at all. They especially need to be here from 5Pm to closing, Friday and Saturday.

By the way, the bar on wheels is still coming through the residential area. Why doesn't this guy place in his employee handbook the route and enforce that policy. The people over in the apartment building are not too thrilled when these drunks detour through our neighborhood; they are rude and obnoxious.

August 28, 2015

Dear Jose',

Since the time that I wrote this letter, the "bar on wheels" has continued to come down the residential streets. I and many people who pay to live here "IN PEACE" are disrespected by drunks who hoop and holler on the "bar with wheels. Tim Carpenter was totally against this project coming to fruition. I and my neighbors agree with him! Did the owner give a stiff donation to Walker's reelection campaign? I think I am going to do some investigating. It wouldn't astound me since a great deal of special interest groups are touting favor with the present party who is desimatng our wonderful and beautifull state.

Thank You for listening,

Dear Alderman Perez,

During your campaign for reelection we had a conversation regarding multiple issues:

- 1.) The pedal tavern's route past many residential properties, including the one I have currently inhabited for the last 7yrs
- 2.) The need for more stop control along 2nd street from Greenfield-National- especially with the estimated traffic increase pending opening of the Freshwater Plaza/Cermak
- 3.) My Landlord's lack of regard for the state law that requires the owner/s of buildings with 5+ units to provide recycling receptacles.

Congratulations on your recent victory. I look forward to hearing from you promptly.

My point was that you have to be a patron of Pedal Tavern in order to enjoy what is otherwise prohibited - open drinking and demonstratively inebriated behavior in the streets while on a moving vehicle (or not!). However, your otherwise peripheral point raises the legitimate issue of more licensed hooch wagons all over the city in the event your board makes yet another ill-advised decision.
