

Tom Aldridge, age 60, having worked through college as a George Webb Restaurant worker and manager in the late 1970's and early 1980's, was afforded an opportunity in 1983 to purchase his first Milwaukee George Webb location in Milwaukee. He went on to build or acquire 10 additional Milwaukee area locations over his 35 year career as a George Webb business owner/operator. Having purchased and completely rehabbed his first home at age 23, a large duplex on Milwaukee's Downer Avenue, and having his corporate offices in the Northern Lights Business Center since 1996, the east side holds a special place in his heart. In 1999 he saw an opportunity to raise a dilapidated duplex with a retiring florist's store front at 2935 North Oakland Avenue into a brand new George Webb Restaurant. The location continues to prosper. Tom continues to be dedicated to running his George Webb restaurants in the city of Milwaukee with locations at 2935 North Oakland Ave, 812 North Old World 3rd Street, 6108 West Bluemound Road, 2028 West Mitchell Street, and 6181 South Howell Avenue.
