RE: CLAIM FOR THEFT FROM VEHICLE.

TO: City Clerks Office

Thank you for extending your time to adhere to the crime of theft from my property. I am truly concerned and highly upset that as a tax payer in this city, I can not intrust my personal property to be impounded by city officials and returned to me in the same respectable condition it was removed. My complaint is as follows: Upon opening my door I noticed immediately my cases of dvd's were not sitting directly at the back door. There was one case of dvd movies, which some were scattered through out the van and a separate case of cd's (music). All together, at least 100 movies and at least 65 cd's are missing. My anger escalated when noticing all mine and my children clothes and shoes were not scattered about the van. The police themselves commented on the, I quote "shamble" my vehicle was in w/out knowledge of my separation from my wife had just previously taken place. These items of clothing consisted of four pairs of Jubo jeans w/the four Jubo shirts, four pairs of Guess jeans w/the four Guess shirts, three sets of Enyce jogging suits, Pelle Pell suits, Sean John suits each. Two pair of Timberland boots, two pair of Nike boots, three pair of Nike Air-Max tennis shoes which one pair of those belongs to my oldest son and two pair of Jordans. Outside of clothing, there were two dvd players and a play station 2 game w/8 games that the children play with. To bounce me off the ceiling and send me sky rocketing, something told me to check my cup holder, sure enough, my wifes two piece set diamond wedding rings, along w/ the two charms, the three gold chains, two of which had her initial D hanging from it and one w/a cross hanging from it, were not there. Yes, I'm on fire and you can understand my stress.

This itemized complaint is based upon a factual loss. Please advise me on your intentions to rectify this situation. I can be reached at the phone numbers and address above. Thank you in advance for your promptness in solving this matter.

*The total sum of these items are:
rounded = 9,200.00*

Sincerely,

Vincent Lockett

CL File No: 04-L-10

Dear Mr. Overholt:

Let me begin by apologizing for the delay in responding to your request. I also did not receive the February 4, 2004 request letter. This is the only information I have received from your office. Again I apologize. Thank you for taking the time to investigate and adhere to the matter at hand and here is the information you requested:

Tow No.	1178506
License Plate No.	241FGH
VIN. NO.	1GBEG25K7H7140254
Date Of Tow	January 17, 2004
Yr. Mk. & Mdl.	1987-Chevrolet-Van

OTHER INFORMATION: After retrieving this information, I spoke w/ Louis Black, the lot manager and requested the name of the young man whom retrieved my vehicle and brought it out to me. Mr. Black refused to give me his name and stated he would deal w/ you on that matter. I stated the importance of this information and how it could help my case, he rebutted negativity and stated the employees do not speak to anyone, and he's the manager therefore everyone and everything comes through him. I thanked him and ended the call.

FYI: I feel the identity of this person is important because he was standing right next to me along w/ MarcheLe Lockett and Albert Burk, when I opened my van doors and he witnessed my FIRST reaction. He can testify to my rage. He watched me enter the back of the van, I immediately began to ask him a thousand questions about the personnel inside the lot. He appeared a little feared by my tantrum but I just wanted some immediate information. We stood in the parking lot for approximately 15-20 minutes before someone picked him up in another vehicle and they went back inside the gate.

If there is any thing further I may assist you with please contact me. (Cell- 303-3375).

Sincerely Concerned,

Vincent L. Lockett/Albert Burk
