Connecting local economies

Transference of Community-based Technology Initiative
Wisconsin - Venezuela Sister Cities Project

The consulate of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela and the University of Wisconsin Center For Cooperatives invites you to collaborate on an exciting new initiative. As part of the Sister Cities agreement between Dane County, the city of Milwaukee and cities of Sanare and Carora in the Venezuelan State of Lara, the initiative aims to facilitate transnational economic cooperation with a focus on fortifying community-led partnerships. We hope to harness the technology, knowledge base and skill sets unique to each community to build reciprocal relationships that augment the socio-economic and productive capacities of partners in the states of Wisconsin and Lara, Venezuela. With a focus on cooperative organizations and community-driven processes, this initiative challenges existing paradigms of globalization and the monopolization of technology by aligning itself with the principles of sovereign technology and base building.
