Thanks- a quick question- can the oil be addressed with the property owner? There is no current operator at this address- no food license. We understand that the person who owns the building kicked out Brown and Gibbs a month or so ago. He stated he was going to be doing some renovations/cleanup. We don't have a business owner to tie the orders to.

Let us know,
Carly

Good morning,

I have submitted a request to the Health Department concerning the improperly stored cooking oil at 182 E Lincoln Ave. I included the resident's contact information on the request and they should be reaching out to him.

Dear Alder Person Marina,

I am getting emails about a public hearing coming up for Brown and Gibbs sports bar in Bayview, located at: 182 E Lincoln Ave, Milwaukee, WI 53207

This bar absolutely should NOT be allowed back in our neighborhood. They do not follow noise ordinances, I would see countless customers drive home incredibly intoxicated every night of the week.

And as a cherry on top, they've been improperly disposing of fryer oil and polluting the neighborhood. I am attaching images of an abandoned steel drum full of used cooking oil that has been overflowing and spilling said oil all over the sidewalk. It's stained the sidewalk and you can smell the stench of oil when you walk by. Additionally there is a large box of salad oil that is becoming more soggy with every storm we get. It's only a matter of time until that gives out and spills all over the sidewalk too.

Please help keep our neighborhood a clean and safe space for everyone.
Do the right thing.
Have a great day! 😊

P.S. you should visit the location before the hearing, they left it an absolute mess and make that corner look like a dumping spot.

Dear alderman Dimitrijevic,

I live in Bayview from Brown and Gibb's Sports bar and since they have moved in they've always played their music far too loud, inside and outside of the bar into the late hours of the night. That's exactly why I'm emailing you, because right now that bar is blasting music so loud I can hear it in my bedroom, in my building.

On top of this, the amount of people I see stumbling out of that bar and then driving away from it is atrocious. Our neighborhood doesn't deserve a nuisance establishment making it difficult for people to sleep. I understand it's a Saturday night and Valentine's Day, but this has gone on for long enough. Its rude and unneighborly.

Thank you for taking the time to read my email, I hope something comes of it that helps our neighborhood rest without obnoxious bass thumps pounding through their walls.
