

BIO: Jeff Sherman – Onmilwaukee.com – Representing The Wisconsin Club (serves on board of directors)

Lifelong and passionate greater Milwaukee resident, Marquette University graduate, husband and father of two, Jeff Sherman is the founding president of Young Professionals of Milwaukee (renamed Fuel Milwaukee), one of the original junior members of the Greater Milwaukee Committee and involved in board positions for numerous civic and community groups including past political appointments to the Wisconsin Center District and Marcus Center for the Performing Arts. He's currently president of OnMilwaukee, a digital media company, co-founder of ZYN, a holistic wellness beverage company and B-Corp and president-elect of at the Wisconsin Club, a private membership club in Downtown Milwaukee.

He owns a condo in Downtown (Westtown) and lives in greater Milwaukee with his wife Stephanie, his son, Jake, and daughter Pierce. He's a political, music, sports and news junkie and thinks, for what it's worth, success means going from failure to failure with enthusiasm. Onward.
