Dear, to whom it may concern

I am writing to formally appeal the denial of my tattoo establishment license due to a stated lack of experience. While I understand the city's concerns, I would like to provide additional context regarding my qualifications and the structure of my business.

I have conducted extensive research on the tattoo industry and the operations of successful shops. Additionally, I have a background in business management, including college coursework and hands-on experience managing businesses for past employers. My role will focus on the business side of operations—ensuring compliance, financial stability, and a well-managed establishment.

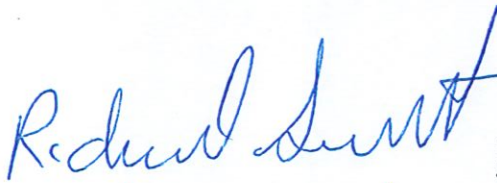

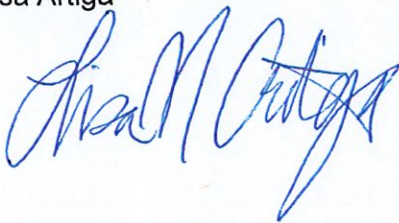

Furthermore, the artists I have employed bring extensive industry experience, having worked in multiple states for several years. Their expertise ensures that our shop meets professional standards for safety, artistry, and client care.

I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this matter further and clarify any requirements necessary for reconsideration. Please let me know if a hearing or additional documentation is needed.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Lisa Artiga
