SENIOR COUNSEL

Overview

Gini's practice focuses on business law, tax, estate planning, probate and trust administration, real estate for businesses and individuals, and business succession planning for family-owned businesses. Additionally, she aids in the creation of nonprofit entities such as 501(c)3 organizations as well as corporate and family foundations.

In estate planning, Gini helps individuals, couples and families prepare solid estate plans to meet clients' goals and address concerns including care of minor children, special needs trusts, second and subsequent marriages (including marital property agreements) and general estate planning updates. In litigation matters, she handles issues regarding fiduciary duties and breach of fiduciary responsibilities, competency matters, ambiguous wording of documents, contested wills and trusts, beneficiary responsibilities and IRS dispute resolution.
