

RALPH E. HOLLMON

Biography

Ralph Hollmon, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Milwaukee Urban League (MUL), assumed that position in October 2002. As President, he is responsible for the organizations management and strategic planning, overseeing all operations. In this capacity, he provides the leadership to ensure that the League's education, employment, economic development and social justice programs are implemented in an effective manner. He leads in the full acknowledgement and recognition of the organizations commitment to serving African Americans, and others in need of assistance, so they can improve the quality of their lives.

Hollmon has held the position of Central Region Vice President of the National Urban League Association of Executives and has been actively involved with a variety of civic and community organizations. His community outreach includes serving as: past Co-Chair of the Milwaukee Commission on Police Community Relations, Co-Chair of the Governor's Business Opportunity Advisory Commission and member of the Silver Lake College Board of Directors. He currently serves as a member of the JP Morgan Chase Bank National Community Advisory Board, member of the Wells Fargo Bank Community Advisory Board, Marcus Center for the Performing Center Board of Directors, Milwaukee Succeeds Executive Committee, African American Chamber of Commerce and Member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee.

Ralph brings a wealth of governmental and community service experience to his current position. He has served as Director of the Milwaukee County Department of Human Services, Chief Executive Officer of the Private Industry Council, and the Executive Director of the Milwaukee Metropolitan Sewerage District. In addition, Ralph has held positions with the State of Wisconsin Department of Administration and the Social Development Commission of Milwaukee County. Prior to joining the Milwaukee Urban League, Ralph led his own company as President of Hollmon Management and Consulting LLC, (HMC) a project management and public affairs consulting firm.

Ralph received his undergraduate degree at Parsons College in Fairfield, Iowa, and earned his Master's Degree in Urban Affairs from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. He also completed the Executive Education Program, "Strategic Perspectives in Nonprofit Management" at the Harvard School of Business.
