

Dan Henkhaus
danhenkhaus@gmail.com

Professional Experience

Vulcan Global Manufacturing Solutions, Inc., Milwaukee Wisconsin

Chief Financial Officer January 2007 – Present
Controller March 2003 – January 2007

- Responsible for all financial aspects for a $40 million manufacturer
- Senior manager accountable to ownership group for running the entire business
- Direct decision maker for all aspects of insurance risk management
- Management leader for finance, human resources and information technology
- Collaborator on negotiation with key customers and suppliers
- Created relationships with banks to secure financing for equipment

Viasystems Milwaukee, Inc., Oak Creek Wisconsin

Controller February 2001 to March 2003
Assistant Controller July 2000 to February 2001

- Financial manager responsible for a $25 million manufacturer
- Championed monthly financial presentations to parent company
- Yearly preparation of annual budgets
- Maintained daily cash flow

General ThermoDynamics, Inc., Franklin Wisconsin

Assistant Controller October 1998 to July 2000

- Responsible for all financial aspects for our Detroit subsidiary
- Timely and accurate preparation of month end financial statements
- ISO-9001 internal auditor

McGladrey & Pullen, LLP, Janesville Wisconsin

Staff accountant through Manager January 1992 to October 1998

- Industry exposure consisted of manufacturers, wholesalers, retailer and construction contractors
- Trained new staff on audit policies and procedures
- Maintained strong client relationships

Education

- University of Wisconsin Whitewater, BBA in Accounting, December 1991
- Certified Public Accountant, State of Wisconsin – Certificate number 15091
- Member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants