- Maria born 1932 in Guadalajara, MX
- Arrived in Milwaukee in late-1940s
- 40-year career at Ladish Co.
- Renowned bandleader and guitarist in numerous groups
- Family involved with Latino Civil Rights organizations

MUSIC MAKERS

...in the Latin manner

ALTHOUGH MANY of the Latin bands playing in and around Milwaukee play most types of music, each has a distinctive style, depending on background and instrumentation.

The attempt here is to list the major performing artists and their personnel, along with a rough idea of their style:

• L'INSPIRACION: Led by Frank Martínez on alto sax, L'Inspiracion has played opposite some of the biggest bands that have visited Milwaukee in recent years, including Wayne King and Pete Fountain. Their style is rich and ranges from ranchera music like "Guadalajara" and the classic cha-chas and rhumbas to the more modern cumbia beat.

L'Inspiracion features a female vocalist, Elena del Valle, and includes Jack Levin, tenor, baritone and alto sax; Chuck Rieff, lead trumpet; Gil Kowalik, second trumpet; Skip Gafney, drums; Ron Zomchek, guitar; Andy Guarra, bass, and John Rico, conga drums.

• LA CONTROVERSIA: Under the direction of trum-
