This report is written by PO Matthew DIENER, assigned to District 2, day shift, squad 2166. On Wednesday, July 1st, 2020, at approximately 12:00pm, squad 2166 (DIENER, VODICKA) was on patrol in the 1800 block of W Greenfield Av, when we observed a known prostitute, Holly M SLAGLE (w/f, 12-2-70), sitting behind the gas station in between two overgrown bushes/weeds, adjusting her pants. SLAGLE stated that she "was sorry, but she had to use the bathroom really bad". I noticed the area where SLAGLE was littered with trash and garbage, and the landscaping was not maintained, creating a hiding spot. I also noticed needle litter, and orange needle caps laying about. I walked around the property and observed garbage was strewn over the entire property, and an abandoned storage trailer was behind the property, which also created a gangway where I could observe needle litter, cushions used for sleeping, and other articles of garbage in between the gas station wall and the storage container. The licensee was not on scene, and I brought up the issues one of the employees, whom I advised that I would be setting up a meeting with the licensee at a future date to address the issues. I took several photos depicting the poor condition of the property and attached them to this report. DNS Inspector Willis Neal also responded to the location to issue clean-up orders at the location, and to have the storage trailer removed. The 1800 block of W Greenfield Av is known to be a hotspot for prostitution and drug activity, and while at the property I observed several suspicious vehicles pulling into the gas station, observing our marked police squad car, then abruptly leaving.

This report is written by P.O. Kevin VODICKA assigned to District Two, Day Shift Community Prosecution Unit. On Wednesday, December 9, 2020, at 10:48 AM, Squad 2166 (P.O. Matthew DIENER and I) and Wisconsin Department of Revenue Agent Georgeann KING conducted a licensed premises check at Alina Petroleum, located at 1801 W Greenfield Av, after having received complaints that the location had video gambling machines and that subjects were loitering in and around the business in order to take money out of the A.T.M. in order to gamble.

Officers entered the location and observed two (2) video machines near the back of the location. The machines appear to be traditional video gambling machines; however, a customer has the option of pressing a small button on the screen, after having inserted at least one (1) U.S. dollar, which shows the customer if the machine is going to award a monetary prize. The customer then has the option to have their money returned to them or to continue to play. The customer receives a payout slip (if owed money) and are paid by the employee. The machines are rented from a vendor, JD Prime Games, and proceeds from the games are split between the premises and JD Prime Games.

A check of displayed licenses revealed that the premises does not hold a PEP license. Officers found no violations during the check. Agent KING seized seven (7) boxes of tobacco products that were purchased from an unauthorized distributor. Officers and Agent KING spoke with the licensee, Muhammad RANA (A/M 04/15/55) by phone during the investigation.

A citation for PEP license required was issued and mailed to the licensee.
