Some people who received this message don't often get email from maaronyelk@gmail.com. Learn why this is important

To clarify, I am specifically requesting to give public comment. So I would like to know if anything is needed of me in that regard.

Hello,

I will be in attendance at the Milwaukee City Hall for the meeting concerning the proposed data center. In the event that the meeting is too full to attend in person, I am requesting information for virtual attendance. If there is anything else required of me to participate in the meeting please let me know asap.
