On 12-14-94 LARISSA MC CLAIN filed an application to transfer the Class B license from 1635 West Wright Street to 2678 North 5th Street. During the Utilities and Licenses Committee hearing of February 21, 1995, the transfer application of Larissa Mc Clain was held because of a concern that her "fiancé" might become involved in the operation. A letter was received at the License investigation Unit from Attorney Raymond M Dall'Osto, dated 1-26-95, which states that the applicant's "roommate", Henry Sharkey, is not connected with the licensed tavern business to be operated by Larissa, and had no ownership or investment interest in the business. The application again came before the U & L Committee on 3-14-95, and was Denied, based on "Police Objection". City Tax Assessor's Office records indicate Henry Sharkey purchased this premises 5-1-99.

- 7) On 4-26-2000, Larissa again filed an application for a Class B Tavern license, for the premises 2678 North 5th Street. Along with the application, the subject filed the required Auxiliary Questionnaire. Question #2 of that form asks the question, "Have you ever been convicted of any felony or misdemeanor (other than traffic) for violation of any federal laws, any Wisconsin laws, any laws of any other states or ordinances of any municipality?" The question was answered with a check in the "No" box. The applicant signed this form, and swore before a Notary Public as to its truthfulness and accuracy.

Based on the 5 convictions listed above for violations of tavern ordinances on 9-11-92, and 3-13-94, the No answer on this Auxiliary Questionnaire was a false statement to an affidavit.

When she was interviewed, Larissa said she has lived at the same address, 3111A North 34th Street, for 15 years. The owner of the building, Henry Sharkey, dob: 7-15-34, apparently lives with her at that address. He gave the same address on his first application for Class D Bartender license 4-6-94, and has given the same address each time he renewed his license, including the last time, 11-9-98. That bartender license is still valid.

Henry Sharkey has the following conviction record.

- 1) On 7-24-86, during the early morning hours, a witness observed Henry Sharkey pushing another person out the door of a tavern at 1635 West Wright Street. He was the licensee of the premises at the time. Then the witness saw the subject pull out a handgun and the other person turned and ran into an alley on the north side of 2459 North 17th Street. The witness then observed the subject point the handgun into the alley and fire in the direction of the other person. The other person was then observed to run into a field adjacent to the alley where he fell.

Police officer responding to a shooting in the vicinity of 2459 North 17th Street observed the other person lying in the field and observed that he was deceased.

-----NOTE: Larissa McClain applied for a Class B Tavern license for a transfer of a license to 2678 N 5th Street on 12-14-94. When it was brought to the attention of the License Investigation Unit, in a letter dated 2-23-95, from then Alderwoman Annette Sherbert, about the concern of the involvement of Henry Sharkey in the business. Henry Sharkey was the owner of the building that this license was being applied for, and was living at the same address as the applicant, at that time.

That license was Denied 3-14-95, by the Common Council, based on the information in the Police Report concerning the investigation of that application.

Subsequent to the Denial of that license, the premises was licensed by Edward Moreland, dob: 10-16-1944, from 1996 until the present. The records of the License Division from 2000 to the present reveals that Larissa McClain held a Class B Manager license for this premises up to the present time, and therefore involved in the operation of the business, even though she was Denied the license for the premises in 1995.

The most recent information available shows that Henry Sharkey is still the owner of this premises, and his most recent bartender license application, applied for 10-25-02, and still valid, gives his latest address as 3111A North 34th Street, the same as the applicant.

Upon arrival we made contact with the bartender, Hughie SIMPSON, who allowed us to review the bar video. SIMPSON attempted to contact a female that is with "Monk" or "Mooney" at times at the bar and attempted to contact the female, in order to help get the keys back. SIMPSON could not get a hold of the female, who he identified as Tanya, but left her a message about this incident, so that the keys could be returned.
