Grant Langley,

I'm responding to your letter of May 21, 2003, regarding the towing of my daughter's car, Her name is Kathleen Nowicki.

When her car was stolen, her cell phone was stolen with the car. When the police found the car on March 14, 2003, they left a message with my other daughter, Debra Jakubiak, 262-786-6533, stating that the car had been found and the car was being towed to the police lot on Lincoln Ave. That message was about 2:00 A.M.

Debbis called me on Saturday morning, March 15, 2003 and informed me that the car was found and towed to the lot.

My husband, Bill, and me went to Kathy's apartment and told her the car was found. She was suprised. She did not tell the police to tow the car, because she was not aware her car had been found.

I would like to request a hearing regarding this matter.

This response is a little late, but I had to get the correct facts. The person who stole her car, did damage to the car, and she had to buy another car. Her cell phone is still missing.

Sincerely,

Elaine A. HONEYAGER

Re: Incident #030721008

Dear Sir,

On March 6, 2003 my daughter's car was stolen. She reported stolen on March 8, 2003. On March 11th or 12th she filed a stolen car report with the MILwaukee Police. The officers name is Clifton Stephens, 1 Sq 14. The car was registered in my daughters name, Kathleen M. NOWICKI.

On March 14, 2003, the car was found and the person driving the car was arrested and jailed. On that Friday night, March 14, 2003 the MILwaukee police called and said the car was found around the area of 31st and Pierce. The police also told us that the car was towed to their lot on 37th and Lincoln and that we could go to that location and pick up the car.

On Saturday, March 15, 2003 we went to that lot and paid an of $95.00 in order to get the car. I;m enclosing a copy of of the tow lot receipt and the credit card statement for the $95.00.

When I went to the district attorney's with Kathy regarding this matter, Clifton Stephens, said I would get my money, $95.00, reinbursed because the car was stolen.

When I spoke to someone on the phone, they said I had to request the reinbursement in written form.

I'm asking that you reinburse the $95.00 to me. PLease send check to William F. HOneyager, 20020 W. Lawnsdale Rd. New Berlin, Wis. 53146. If you have any questions, please call me at 262-679-7274.

Sincerely,

William F. HOneyager
