Subject: Taxi Complaint

Thank you for reviewing these concerns. I was driving east on Drexel Avenue in Oak Creek and turning right onto Howell Avenue going south. While turning left and heading south the taxi driver number 693 in a silver car slammed his horn. My window was down and so was his. I calmly said, you have your own lane. He started yelling at me. I responded, your number is 693. He then tailed me and pretty much ran me off the side of the road trying to take a picture of my car. I assume he was trying to intimidate me. I reported this incident in person to a police officer inside the police department in Oak Creek. I am following due process to give the most accurate representation I can to this incident.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

PA-33E Narrative

This report was written by P.O. Dean DRAJKOWSKI assigned to the License Unit day shift.

On Friday, February 20, 2015, at about 12:30 PM, while assigned to Squad 2741 with P.O. Penny BROWN, we conducted taxi inspections at the Hilton hotel located at 501 W. Wisconsin Ave.

I observed Yellow cab #492 parked in the taxi stand waiting for a fare. The vehicle was a yellow 2007 Dodge Caravan bearing a temporary license plate #L1502E WI/15 in the rear window, VIN #1D4GP45R07B153634. The driver was identified as Tarka B. KUMAL, A/M, 02-01-70, of 3017 N. Downer Ave. KUMAL had a valid public passenger vehicle license. KUMAL was the registered owner of the vehicle and did not have a valid public passenger vehicle permit. KUMAL was issued a citation for Public Passenger Vehicle - Permit Required.

PA-33E Narrative

This report is written by PO Penny Brown assigned to the License Investigation Unit. On Thursday, September 3, 2015, I was on patrol checking taxicabs for compliance.

I observed Yellow Cab #492 parked in the posted Taxi Stand at the Hyatt Hotel, located at 333 W. Kilbourn Ave. I introduced myself to the driver (Tarka B. KUMAL) and requested to see his Public Passenger Vehicle License, Driver's License as well as Daily Trip Record. KUMAL provided me with the items I requested, however, stated he did not have his Wisconsin Driver's License on his person. KUMAL stated he may have left it at home. I advised KUMAL that he should have his license on him at all times, especially since driving was his occupation. KUMAL stated he understood and would comply in the future. A citation was mailed to KUMAL.

Hello,

Our cab driver would not let us use a credit card. He claimed the machine was broken and made no attempt to let us use a card. The only reason I got in the cab was because I saw the credit card machine in the backseat. Once he realized we had to pay with a card, he said his machine was broken. After scrolling through his contacts and music, he claimed to have been trying to contact "maintenance." After we demanded that he uses credit card, he pulled a device onto his phone. He then asked for the FOURTH time if we were "sure" that we didn't have any cash, after waiting outside my house for 10 minutes. Afterwards, we told him it was imperative to adjust his credit card machine to his customers, in which he yelled profanities at us we walked into our house. I feel uncomfortable having given him my credit card and my home address. His cab was number 420 and we believe his first name was Dwayne. I'm among many Marquette students who rely on yellow cab, and now I see why most of us would prefer uber. The inconsistency with your employees is alarming, and I feel unsafe sleeping in my home tonight after my encounter. An $11 cab ride turned into a threatening encounter. I would appreciate a response and a refund, as well as an apology. Students of my university and people throughout Milwaukee should not be treated like I was. This city is dangerous enough, don't need inappropriate cab drivers being lazy and calling me a "f bch." I will be using uber from now on, along with my 9 roommates to avoid this occurrence.

Thank you for your help.

Subject: Complaint on American United Taxi - Cab # 89

Hello,

I have worked at US Bank at the downtown Milwaukee US Bank building for over nine years. I regularly ride the Amtrak train from Glenview, Illinois to downtown Milwaukee as part of my routine commute. I then routinely take a cab from the Amtrak station in Milwaukee to the US Bank Building (777 East Wisconsin Ave) as part of my daily commute. I realize it is a "short ride" for the drivers that wait at the Amtrak station in the mornings at 7:30 AM for the Amtrak passengers needing a cab. This is why I always pay $10 for the fare as this is well above the $5 or so fare amount - but I appreciate their time in waiting at the cab stand for a short fare.

I had an issue this morning with the driver in American United Taxi cab #89 at 7:30 AM at the Amtrak station. When I approached his cab, his car doors were locked and he would not open his doors. He gestured to me to take the cab in line behind him and then proceeded to open his doors and allow a passenger to get in who was carrying a couple suit cases. I do not believe this is acceptable behavior as I should not be denied a ride because a driver prefers to take a customer that may be going a longer distance. I plan to call this Cab company as well. Thought you would like to be made aware of this issue. Thanks.

Subject: On American United Cab Complaint

Hi Jason,

Per our discussion on the cab complaint—The complainant was [REDACTED]. The cab company was American United Cab, cab #110. [REDACTED] stated that her daughter, whom I spoke to confirm the information, was leaving the hospital around [REDACTED] to her place of residence and the cab driver, unprecedentedly, requested that she pre-pay for the fare. [REDACTED] felt that this was profiling, not necessarily racial, but more so profiling the neighborhood she was traveling to. If this could be noted on the record, that would be excellent.

Many thanks,

Natalie

Subject: Cab 249 - 6/8/2015 at 12:15pm

Cab ride was from Milwaukee airport (MKE) to 6/8/2014 w/ pickup at the airport at 12:15pm.

No license or picture was displayed – the meter was not working. When it came time to pay the bill, I was offered up the rate shown in the receipt with only predefined percentages to tip – I left NO TIP as I did not even want to tip 15% which was the minimum tip amount offered.

Apparently the air conditioner in the car was not working and I had to ask him to roll up all 4 windows.

I got this email receipt with no date on it, no pick up or drop off info and no cab number. I find this highly unusual and going to be hard to substantiate on an expense report.

Can't the governing agency require more details on the receipt and an option required to leave a customer preferred tip amount other than prescribed amounts?

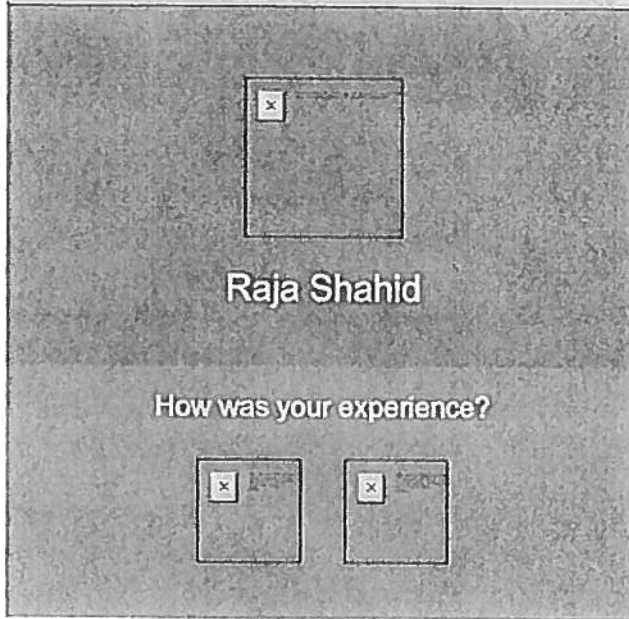

Regards and thanks,
