of the City of Milwaukee
Room 205, City Hall

Re: Common Council File No. 110929/Resolution authorizing the proper City officers to enter into a contract for the collection of receivables

Dear Council Members:

On June of 2011, by Common Council File No. 110270, the Common Council authorized the City Attorney to request proposals for the collection contract for City receivables. The current contract expires on December 31, 2011.

The City Attorney's office advertised for proposals in three newspapers, three times in each, contacted every firm that had expressed an interest in the procurement five years ago, and arranged for the City purchasing director to place an announcement on her department's website.

We received 53 requests for the RFP. Eight firms submitted proposals, all of which met the basic requirements of the RFP. Ten years ago, there were four proposals, but only one met the RFP's requirements. Five years ago, six firms submitted compliant proposals.

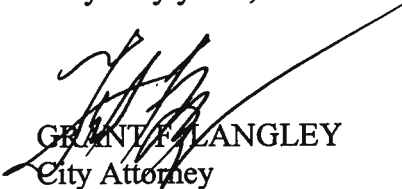

A team of evaluators – including representatives of this office, the Treasurer's office, the Department of Neighborhood Services, and the Department of Public Works – reviewed all the proposals and conducted oral interviews with each proposer. The Comptroller's office provided assistance by assessing the financial strength and costs of each proposal. The highest ranked proposer is the Kohn Law Firm, S.C. based on: fees; expertise; experience; the extent to which the proposer can accommodate the City's methodology, need for access to information, and EBE capabilities; and service delivery capabilities. This was the unanimous decision of the panel.

The Honorable Common Council
November 10, 2011
Page 2

Therefore, we have negotiated a contract for Common Council approval with Kohn Law Firm, S.C. During the negotiations, the Kohn Law Firm, S.C. agreed to certain new provisions advantageous to the City. In addition, the fees are lower than those contained in the current contract.

Attached to this letter is a copy of the negotiated contract, and a proposed resolution approving it and authorizing its execution.

Very truly yours,

GRANT F. LANGLEY
City Attorney
