

Parris Hibbler Bio

Parris Hibbler

Pastor | Community Organizer | Educator

Parris Hibbler is a dynamic pastor, seasoned educator, and committed community organizer who has served the Greater Milwaukee area with passion and purpose for over a decade. As the pastor of The Crossover Center, Pastor Hibbler leads with a heart for transformation—providing spiritual guidance, championing social justice, and empowering individuals and families through faith and service.

In education, Pastor Hibbler has made a lasting impact as a teacher and Assistant Dean of Students at Hope Christian Schools: Fidelis, where he supports academic achievement, character development, and positive student outcomes in one of Milwaukee's most vibrant learning communities.

A powerful force for community engagement, Pastor Hibbler has spearheaded numerous initiatives addressing the needs of inner-city youth and underserved families. He along with his team has founded and led Safe Haven, a youth movement that reached over 300 young people with mentorship, leadership training, and safe spaces for growth. Additional outreach has included city-wide Christmas giveaways, neighborhood cleanups, food distributions, job fairs, and resource workshops—all aimed at uplifting and uniting Milwaukee's communities.

In recognition of his impactful ministry and civic work, Pastor Hibbler received the prestigious Ministry Mantle Award in 2024, presented by Creative Awards MKE. He also furthered his higher educational experience at Concordia University.

Pastor Hibbler continues to build bridges across faith, education, and community, working tirelessly to cultivate opportunity, dignity, and hope for all residents of Milwaukee.
