

Clifford A. Draeger

A native of North Dakota, Cliff Draeger moved to Milwaukee in September of 1955, three months after he married his high school sweet heart.

Mr. Draeger began service with the city of Milwaukee in April 1973, elected to the common council, as Alderman of the 12th district. He continued with the council until December 1982, when he accepted a position in the city's real estate department working as a real estate agent until April 1988.

May of 1990, Mr. Draeger returned to the city of Milwaukee with an appointment as special deputy in the treasurer's office. In 1996, he was promoted to Deputy City Treasurer where he completed 25 years of city service retiring in July 2000.

A husband for over forty-six years, Mr. Draeger is a father of six children and twelve grandchildren.
