The transport of house pets across state borders is possible only with the necessary veterinary documentation certifying the animals' state of health. Cats and dogs must be fitted with an electronic identification system (microchip). Up to five pets can be imported at border crossings approved for the circulation of certain house pets, whilst the import of larger numbers of animals must be made at a border crossing where there is a border veterinary inspection.

When travelling with your pet, you are responsible for it

When bringing your pet into the Republic of Croatia, it is your responsibility to meet all the conditions necessary for its importation. Please check, for instance, whether your pet has been vaccinated, that is, re-vaccinated, on time, whether an antibody titer test has been performed and whether it has a valid passport or veterinary certificate. If your pet does not meet these criteria, then your entry into the Republic of Croatia may be denied, that is, your pet can be returned to the country of origin or quarantined at the permitted border crossing. The owner will bear all costs arising from the implementation of these measures.

In line with the Regulations on veterinary conditions for the non-commercial transportation of pets, the following animals species are considered as pets: dogs, cats, pet ferrets (Mustela putorius) from the marten family (Mustelidae), invertebrates (except for bees and crayfish), ornamental tropical fish, amphibians, reptiles, all bird species (except for poultry),

Maximum number of animals

The importation of a maximum of five animals can be considered as non-commercial. The animals must be subjected to an identification and document inspection by a customs official at a border crossing of the Republic of Croatia. These animals will not be considered a commodity and must be accompanied by their owner or a person authorised by the owner to accompany them for the entirety of the trip.

Conditions

General import conditions for dogs, cats and tame martens (also called domestic ferret, white ferret, African ferret, weasel, skunk, tamed ferret, domestic weasel or tamed weasel – Mustela putorius) coming from EU member states and low-risk countries outside the EU:

- They must be fitted with an electronic identification system (microchip). If the animal is fitted with a microchip that is not in line with the ISO Standard 11784 or 11785, the owner must provide the appropriate microchip scanner. The name and address of the animal's owner must be determinable at all times. The animal's passport or certificate, which is transported with the animal, needs to contain the microchip number which has been issued by a veterinarian.
- They must be accompanied by a passport or certificate issued by a veterinarian authorised by the relevant body.
- They must be vaccinated against rabies

Animals coming from EU countries, or countries outside the EU that are considered low-risk, that are under three months of age and have not been vaccinated can be imported into the territory of the Republic of Croatia if the owner or accompany and if the animals have been living in the same place since birth and have not been in contact with wild animals which may have been exposed to infections, or are travelling with their mother on whom they are still dependent.

Dogs, cats and members of the marten family coming from high-risk countries must fulfil the following conditions:

- They must be fitted with an electronic identification system (microchip)
- They must have a veterinary certificate issued by an official veterinarian or, at re-entry, a passport (dogs from Croatia)
- They must be vaccinated against rabies
- They must have undergone a test on the neutralization of antibodies with the titration of antibodies equalling at least 0.5 IU/ml on a sample taken by a certified veterinarian, in a certified laboratory, 30 days after vaccination at the earliest and three months prior to transfer. A list of authorized facilities can be found at the following web page: http://ec.europa.eu/food/animal/liveanimals/pets/approval_en.htm.

The stipulated period of three months is not applicable in the case of the re-entry of pets from the Republic of Croatia whose passport confirms that the titration of antibodies with a positive result was carried out before the animal left the Republic of Croatia.

Animals imported commercially, and those being shipped as a parcel, need to be examined by a veterinarian prior to shipment. For additional information please contact the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Rural Development – Administration for Veterinary Medicine (Tel. +385 1 6109 499; +385 1 6106 703 and +385 1 6106 455; web: www.mps.hr)

Health services

There are hospitals and clinics located in all larger towns and cities, while smaller centres have dispensaries and pharmacies only.

Foreign visitors who are covered by health insurance in their own country are not obliged to pay for emergency medical services during a private stay in the Republic of Croatia if a convention on Social Security has been signed between Croatia and the visitors' country of origin, i.e. if they have in their possession a certificate stipulated by such a convention confirming their right to health care. Health care (including transport) is used for emergency cases in the manner and according to regulations valid for Croatian citizens covered by Social Security, with identical participation in health care costs (participation). Persons coming from countries with which no such convention has been signed personally bear the costs of health services rendered.

For further information, please contact the Croatian Institute for Health Insurance. (Tel: +385 1 4806 333, web: www.hzzo-net.hr).

Veterinary services

Croatia is covered by a network of veterinary clinics and dispensaries.

Tap water is safe to drink in all of Croatia.

In the event of an accident, phone 112!

This number can be reached any time, day or night, regardless of where you are in the Republic of Croatia or in the European Union.

Calls to this number are free of charge. Calls can be made through all operators and all telephone devices by dialling 112.

In the event of an accident, the 112 Centre can be contacted in any one of the following foreign languages:

- English
- German
- Italian
- Hungarian
- Slovakian
- Czech

CALL 112! If you need:

- Emergency medical assistance,
- The assistance of fire fighters,
- The assistance of the police,
- The assistance of the Mountain Rescue Service,
- The assistance of other emergency services and operative search and rescue forces.

If you see:

- a fire,
- spills or leaks of dangerous substances, pollution of drinkable water, streams, rivers, or the sea,
- other instances which present a danger to the life and health of people or animals, cultural heritage or the environment.

When you call, pass the following information:

- what happened,
- where it happened,
- when it happened,
- are there any injured persons,
- what the injuries are,
- what assistance is required,
- who is calling.

PRACTICAL ADVICE

Outdoor activities

- Tell relatives or friends the route and plan of your journey
- Walk on marked paths and trails
- Take sufficient quantities of water with you
- Prepare adequate clothing and footwear
- Prepare mobile telephone devices
- Monitor weather forecasts
- Handle open fires carefully and in line with regulations
- Do not throw cigarette butts or flammable objects outside

Fire prevention

Check that you have undertaken all the necessary measures to prevent fire!

Do not throw burning or inflammable objects into the environment!

Observe signs forbidding the lighting of fires!

Take care that your parked vehicles do not obstruct fire fighting vehicle approaches and access roads.

What should you do in case of fire?

- Immediately notify the fire brigade of the fire on the telephone number 112. Use a hand-held fire extinguisher (if one is available) and only attempt to extinguish the fire if doing so does not endanger you or others.
- Notify people in the area about the fire.

FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN BY THE FIRE BRIGADE

REMEMBER:

Non compliance with fire protection regulations will result in the Ministry of Internal Affairs raising a violation report or imposing a fine on the perpetrator.

On the road

- Avoid traffic jams during the peak tourism season and driving at weekends and holidays,
- Be well rested when driving,
- Adjust your speed to the conditions on the road and the speed limits,
- In the event of a traffic jam, be patient and take sufficient quantities of water with you.

At sea

- In case of an accident or sea pollution, call 155 (National Headquarters for Search and Rescue at Sea) or 112.
- Before setting sail, inform yourself of the weather forecast, especially for the Adriatic,
- While swimming, stay in sight of other swimmers,
- Inform family and friends of the approximate location in which you will be diving and mark the area appropriately,

- Moderate your exposure to the sun and use protective mediums
- Do not overestimate your own capabilities,
- Have sufficient quantities of drinking water with you.

Environmental protection

The protection of biodiversity is in compliance with valid EU regulations. With regards to swimming, the waters of the Croatian Adriatic Sea are of a high quality according to EU criteria. In the event of environmental pollution, please phone 112.

Radio news in foreign languages during the tourist season

Croatian Radio broadcasts programmes in foreign languages designed for tourists in Croatia on several frequencies.

A daily programme is broadcast at 8:05 pm on Channel One, in English, for a duration of approximately 10 min.

During the summer season, Channel Two of the Croatian Radio (98,5 Mhz – north-western Croatia and the Dubrovnik Littoral; 105,3 Mhz – Istria; 96,1 Mhz – Split; 98,9 Mhz – the Makarska Littoral; 93,3 Mhz – Gorski kotar) will broadcast, in addition to regular news and reports from HAK (the Croatian Automobile Club) in Croatian, traffic information in English and German, and in August, also in Italian. Traffic and congestion alerts from HAK are broadcast in Croatian and English.

During the summer period, on Channel Two of the Croatian Radio, news is broadcast every hour from the Third Channel of Austrian Radio and Bayern 3 in German, RAI Uno in Italian, Radio Prague in Czech, Absolute Radio in English and from the International Station of Croatian Radio – “Voice of Croatia” also in English, German and Spanish.

During the summer, Radio Prague reporters broadcast news for their nationals staying in Croatia via the following regional radio stations: Radio Split, Radio Dubrovnik and Radio Rijeka.

CROATIA BY CAR

Documents

To enter Croatia, a driver's licence, an automobile registration card and vehicle insurance documents are required.

An international driving licence is desirable for renting vehicles (rent-a-car). The permit is issued by the motor club of the driver's country of domicile. The driver of a motor vehicle registered abroad entering the territory of the Republic of Croatia must have a valid International Motor Third Party Liability Insurance document valid on the territory of the European Union, or some other evidence of the existence of such insurance. International insurance documents and evidences are considered to be either an official licence plate of a vehicle normally stationed on the territory of a country whose national insurance bureau is a signatory of the Multilateral agreement, or a valid Green Card issued for a vehicle which originates from a country whose national insurance bureau is not a signatory of the Multilateral agreement and other documents and evidences whose validity is known by the Croatian Insurance Bureau.

Speed Limits:

- within settled areas - 50 km/h
- outside settled areas - 90 km/h
- on major roads designed exclusively for motor vehicles and on highways - 100 km/h
- on motorways - 130 km/h
- for motor vehicles with a trailer without brakes - 80 km/h
- for buses and buses with a light trailer - 80 km/h; on motorways - 100 km/h, except for buses used in organised transport of children

Regulations:

Driving with dipped headlights is obligatory during winter time.

The use of mobile telephones while driving is forbidden without the use of a hands-free device.

The use of seat belts is obligatory for the driver and all passengers in the motor vehicle.

A reflective sleeveless jacket is an obligatory part of every vehicle's equipment. The driver is obliged to wear it when performing works on the vehicle on the road (changing a tyre, doing repair works on the car, filling up with petrol, stopping other cars in an attempt to seek help, etc.)

Advice for safe driving:

Respect traffic regulations and speed limits. For longer journeys, rest at purpose-built rest areas. Reduce and adjust your speed in wet road conditions. These are all prerequisites to a safe arrival at your destination.

Petrol stations:

In larger cities and on motorways, petrol stations are open 24 hours a day.

Petrol stations sell Eurosuper 95, Super 95, Super 98, Super plus 98, Euro Diesel and Diesel. Gas (LPG) is available in major cities and at petrol stations on motorways.

For information on fuel prices and a list of centres selling LPG gas go to: www.ina.hr, www.omv.hr, www.tifon.hr, and www.hak.hr.

Highway toll charges:

Motorways:

A1 Zagreb-Bosiljevo-Zadar-Šibenik-Split-Šestanovac-Ravča; A2 Zagreb-Zaprešić-Krapina-Macelj; A3 Bregana-Zagreb-Slavonski Brod-Županja-Lipovac; A4 Zagreb-Varaždin-Goričan; A5 Osijek-Đakovo-Sredanci; A6 Bosiljevo-Vrbovsko-Rijeka, A7 Rijeka-Rupa and A9 Kanfanar-Pula.

Three-lane two-way roads:

The Istrian Y (motorway on the Istrian Peninsula) with toll booths at the "Učka Tunnel", direction A8 Kanfanar – Matulji, and the "Mima" viaduct, direction A9 Kanfanar – Kaštel for the bridge between the mainland and the island of Krk.

Basic obligations in case of a traffic accident

First inform the police about the traffic accident by calling the number 192 or the unique European emergency phone number 112. This is not obligatory in the event of a traffic accident which results only in material damage.

If there are injured persons call the emergency medical services (tel.: 194)

Secure the site of the accident, put on your reflective vest, set up a triangle and undertake measures to eliminate any new possible dangers. Wait for the arrival of the police.

In the event of any damage to the vehicle, you must obtain a police report about the damage to the vehicle, without which you cannot cross the state border. Should you require vehicle repair services, or if your vehicle needs towing, call Road Assistance, on 1987. If calling from abroad, dial +385 1 1987.

How to avoid traffic jams

To avoid unnecessarily prolonging your journey and getting caught in traffic jams, you are advised to:

- plan your trip by using the traffic organiser from the Tourist Information Brochure, in which the days and directions of the highest expected densities of traffic are stated. If possible avoid travelling on Saturdays.
- check the conditions of road and ferry traffic with HAK (HAK Information Centre: +385 1 4640 800 or on www.hak.hr) or on the Second Radio Station of Croatian Radio (98.5 Mhz) before the start of your journey.

SAILING IN THE REPUBLIC OF CROATIA

The skipper of a vessel entering the territorial waters of the Republic of Croatia by sea must take the shortest route to the nearest port open to international traffic in order to carry out border control formalities, to obtain the relevant official vignette (sticker) and for the verification of crew members and passenger lists at the Harbour Master's Office, or branch office. The skipper of a vessel which is brought into Croatia by road, or which is moored in a port or in some other approved location within the Republic of Croatia, must obtain the official vignette (sticker) and verify the list of crew members and passengers in the Harbour Master's Office, or a branch office, prior to setting out to sea.

The vignette (sticker) must be obtained for a vessel of 3 m or more in length, as well as for a vessel less than 3 m in length if its total propulsion power is of 5 kW or more. The official vignette (sticker) is not obligatory for a vessel using only oars/paddles, regardless of its length (such as a kayak, beach canoe, pedal boat or similar).

The official vignette is not required by a vessel while in storage in a port or in any other such approved place in the Republic of Croatia.

Life boats and jet skis are subject to the same regulations regarding the possession of a vignette.

The official vignette (sticker) must be displayed in a visible location on the vessel. Its period of validity is one year from the date of issue. The counterfoil of the vignette must be affixed to the vessel's list of persons.

A vessel sailing in the Republic of Croatia must carry the following original

- The official vignette (sticker)
- Verified list of crew and passengers
- Verified list of persons who can stay aboard the vessel (for vessels which intend to change crews while sailing in the Republic of Croatia)
- Confirmation (receipt) of payment of fees for sailing safety, lighting, maritime information charts and administrative fees
- Confirmation (receipt) of payment of the flat rate sojourn tax, for vessels more than 5 m in length with bunks
- Proof of seaworthiness of the vessel
- Proof that the skipper of the vessel is qualified to command the vessel
- Proof of third party insurance
- Proof of ownership, or the owner's authorisation to use the vessel.

List of crew members and passengers

The list of crew and passengers includes crew members and passengers who are on the vessel, and is approved by signature and seal at the Harbour Master's Office or branch office.

If the skipper of a vessel does not intend to change crew during their stay in Croatian waters and while the official vignette is valid, they do not need to further report to the Harbour Master's Office or branch office.

Vessels with no facilities for extended stay (vessels with no bunks) do not need to have a crew member and passenger list. In Croatia, the skipper of a vessel can disembark the crew (or part thereof) with which they arrived from abroad, and take on a new crew, in which case they must register the change of crew with the Harbour Master's Office, and leave Croatian waters with this new crew.

Cultural and natural sites on the UNESCO List of World Heritage

There are numerous cultural monuments in Croatia. The most famous are the Old city of Dubrovnik, Diocletian's Palace in Split, the historic town core of Trogir, the early Christian complex of the Euphrasian

Basilica in Poreč, the Cathedral of St.

James in Šibenik and the Stari Grad plain on Hvar – all listed as World Heritage Sites

by UNESCO. The Plitvice Lakes, the most beautiful and most famous national park in Croatia, is our only natural heritage site included on the prestigious UNESCO List.

On the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity

are the Festivity of Saint Blaise, lace-making in Lepoglava, Hvar and Pag,

the annual Carnival bell ringers' pageant

from the Kastav region, Procession "Za

Križen", (following the Cross)" on the Island of Hvar, two-part singing and playing (music) in the Istrian scale, in Istria and Hrvatsko Primorje, the annual spring procession of 'Kraljice/Ljelje' (queens)

from Gorjani, the traditional manufacture of wooden toys in the Hrvatsko zagorje region, the Sinjska alka - a knights' tournament in Sinj, and the gingerbread craft from northern Croatia. Croatia is among the countries with the most protected in-angible cultural heritage elements recorded on the UNESCO list. Ojkanje singing features on the List of Intangible Cultural Heritage in Need of Urgent Safeguarding.

FOOD AND DRINK

Where to eat?

Apart from hotels offering both full board and half board accommodation, restaurants, inns, taverns, wine cellars, pizzerias and fast-food restaurants can be found in all cities, tourist towns and along the main roads. Restaurants and inns offering local Croatian cuisine will be of particular interest to gourmets.

All foods of animal origin are subject to the same standards as in countries of the European Union and are under constant veterinary and health supervision.

What to eat?

In addition to standard European cuisine, Croatia offers its most popular local dishes and specialities. Among cold dishes, there are the renowned Dalmatian or Istrian prosciuttos, cheeses from the island of Pag and the Lika region, sheep's cheese, Slavonian kulen (a spicy cured pork meat speciality), the renowned garlic sausages (češnjovka) of Samobor and the Zagorje region, fresh cottage cheese with cream, and more. The main dishes on offer vary depending on the area that you are visiting: In Dalmatia, the Primorje coastal area, on the islands and in Istria, they are based largely on fish and other seafood, while typical meat dishes include patkica (a stewed lamb dish) and cooked lamb.

In continental Croatia, there is a rich selection of meat dishes, including the particularly prized roast turkey with mlinci (boiled rolled pastry), roast lamb, roast suckling pig and boiled or baked štrukli (thin rolled pastry stuffed with fresh cottage cheese and cream). Among desserts, apart from the already mentioned štrukli, there are walnut loaf, poppy seed loaf and cheese or fruit strudel.

What to drink?

The cultivation of grapes and production of select wines is a centuries-old tradition among Croatian viticulturists both in continental Croatia and the Primorje area (the littoral), and Dalmatia. Some of the best known varieties of Croatian red wines along the Adriatic coast and on the islands are: Dingač, Teran, Merlot, Cabernet, Opolo, Plavac and Postup, while the most appreciated of the white wine varieties are: Malvasia, Pošip, Pinot, Kujundžusa, Zlahtina and Muscat. In continental parts, one can enjoy the famous Riesling, Graševina, Burgundia, Traminac and other wines. As far as spirits go, the most famous are the šljivovica or plum brandy, travarica, lozovača and biska, while among dessert drinks there are Prošek and Maraschino.

Dear Guests:

For your personal comfort and in order to respect the law, please check that you have been properly registered for the entire period of your stay in our country from the date of your arrival to the date of your departure.

Your verification is especially important if you are staying in private accommodation, both for the quality of service rendered and for your own personal safety, and for the prevention of the illegal activities of hosts who are not licensed to provide accommodation services.

We thank you for your cooperation and wish you a pleasant stay.

Sincerely,
Croatian National Tourist Board.
