

Rosario C. Sánchez

Ms. Rosario Sánchez is Principal at Nativity Jesuit Middle School. She is into her seventh year of service at the school. Prior to serving in this capacity, she was Nativity's Business Manager, Assistant to the President, and later became the Director of Community Services. Along the way, she taught and continues to teach Spanish.

Before joining Nativity, she worked in City and State Government, as well as in private industry. She holds a joint undergraduate degree in Social Welfare and Ibero-American Studies from UW-Madison and holds a Master of Arts in Instructional Design from Alverno College. She is a longtime resident of Milwaukee's near Southside and continues to live in our Nativity neighborhood.
