

Joyce A. Koker, P.E.

6532 E. River Road • Racine, WI 53402

Career Summary Twenty-five years of progressive experience and responsibility in a variety of industries with roles in strategic and business planning, operations management, organizational development and personnel management.

Experience Harley-Davidson Motor Company Milwaukee, WI
Manager of Facilities and Systems, Corporate Environmental and Safety Engineer May 2007 to present

- ❖ Provide strategic leadership in all aspects of Museum facilities including infrastructure, technology and facilities support services.
- ❖ Provide strategic leadership to all Museum areas to develop and execute the Museum's Continuous Improvement program, including the Harley-Davidson Museum Product Planning Process.
- ❖ Prepare and manage facility operation plans and associated budget forecasts.
- ❖ Museum lead for site emergency response, sustainability, safety, and wellness.

Sigma Environmental Services Milwaukee, WI
Project Manager / Senior Engineer February 2004 to May 2007

- ❖ Business development including identification of client goals and objectives and development of innovative, practical solutions and competitive budgets through proposal preparation.
- ❖ Planning, execution and management of:
 - Environmental regulatory compliance projects for manufacturing clients.
 - Subsurface site investigations and remediation, property transaction due diligence (Phase I and II Environmental Site Assessments) and litigation support.
 - Brownfield redevelopment projects including asbestos inspection and removal, hazardous materials and lead paint assessments and site demolition.

Delta Environmental Consultants New Berlin, WI
Unit Manager, Project Manager, Project Engineer March 1991 to February 2004

- ❖ Business planning and development, client and personnel management for discrete business units. Responsible for national and international manufacturing client project portfolios.
- ❖ Planning, execution and management of environmental projects including compliance audits, environmental/health and safety training support, regulatory applicability assessments, regulatory permitting and reporting, site investigations, remediation, RCRA corrective action and state Superfund projects.
- ❖ Design, permitting and construction of engineered remediation systems.

Amoco Oil Company Chicago, IL
Project Engineer, Design Engineer July 1988 to February 1991

- ❖ Development and responsibility for schedule, scope and budget for environmental projects at active and inactive oil refinery sites in the western U.S.
 - ❖ Management and oversight of environmental consultants and contractors.
 - ❖ Civil and mechanical design and equipment specifications for upgrades and new construction at operating oil refineries.
-

Education

University of Wisconsin
Bachelor of Science, Civil and Environmental Engineering

Madison, WI
May 1988

Professional
Affiliations &
Registrations

- Registered Professional Engineer – Wisconsin
- International Association of Museum Facility Administrators (IAMFA)