

LARISSA GLADDING

Email: gladdinglarissa@gmail.com
Student Email: gladding@uwm.edu

Phone: (608) 347 - 6169
LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/larissa-gladding

PLACES OF RESIDENCE

MILWAUKEE

Milwaukee, Wi
Aug 2017 - Jan 2019
Aug 2019 - present

Dublin, Ireland
May - July 2019.

BARCELONA

Barcelona, Spain
Jan - April 2019

Verona, Wi
2004 - 2017

EDUCATION

Master of Urban Planning, School of Architecture & Urban Planning, University of Wisconsin- Milwaukee, Milwaukee, WI. First year student, expected graduation May 2023.

Bachelor of Arts, Global Urban Development, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Milwaukee, WI. May, 2020.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The East Side Business Improvement District, Milwaukee, WI.

Black Cat Alley Program Director, part time, September 2021 - present

Special Projects Manager, full time, June 2020 - August 2021

Intern, part time, Sept 2019 - June 2020

Formed and facilitate a program Advisory Committee made up of local experts; Became the leading member of the newly formed Board Committee to oversee program fundraising and planning; Created and presented a 2022 program plan including efficiency and equity administrative improvements, site improvement projects, program budget, and long term vision; Responsible for site management, artist management, and project fundraising; Work with diverse stakeholders consistently assessing and balancing varied needs and perspectives; Managed the artist the planning and implementation of two unique public art projects.

Future Analytics Consulting (now KPMG Future Analytics), Dublin, Ireland.

Planning Intern, full time, May- July 2019

Supported the planning and EU research staff with audit-style information collection, collection of planning project and planning history data; Created a report for rural township clients detailing funding opportunities for small-scale Irish community/economic development projects and a handbook of successful past projects.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Wisconsin Main Street Award for 'Best Downtown Revitalization Initiative- Connect Community' for the East Side Art Lot project, 2021

References available upon request