WE HAVE A DREAM of Fair Housing

Country Springs Hotel & Conference Center
2810 Golf Road, Waukesha, WI

8:30 - 9:00 am Registration and Continental Breakfast
9:00 - 9:30 am Welcome
Master of Ceremonies: Scott Bush, Vice President of Operations, Greater Milwaukee Association of Realtors

PLENARY SESSION

9:30 - 11:30 am Affordable Housing in High-Opportunity Communities: Potential and Pitfalls
Metropolitan Milwaukee is the most segregated metro area in the country. The region also has the lowest black suburbanization rate in the nation. A panel of experts will define high-opportunity communities, explore the nature of the problem and offer solutions.

Moderator: Kori Schneider Peragine, Metropolitan Milwaukee Fair Housing Council

Panelists: Nancy Anderson, SEWRPC. Based on SEWRPC's regional housing study, Nancy will lay out some of the region's fair and affordable housing challenges and regional plan recommendations for change. Bill Boerigter, WHEDA. Bill will address WHEDA's role in ensuring tax credit housing development takes fair housing and high opportunity communities into account. Melissa Goins, Maures Development Group. As a real estate developer, Melissa will discuss what makes the development of affordable housing feasible in high opportunity communities. Jim Mathy, Milwaukee County Housing Division. Jim will present reasonable policies an entitlement community can adopt to address segregation and provide affordable housing in high opportunity communities. Demetria McCain, Esq., Vice President, Inclusive Communities Project, Dallas. Demetria, a national fair housing expert, will respond with a national perspective to local panelists.

11:45 am - 2:00 pm Fair Housing Awards Luncheon Program

- Invocation: Roxanne Defoe, Ojibwe Nations, Asst. Executive Director, Housing Resources, Inc.

- Keynote: Demetria McCain, Esq., Vice President, Inclusive Communities Project, Dallas

Mobility Assistance Program Ms. McCain will describe ICP's successes in assisting families making pro-integrative moves and improving their life opportunities, as well as discuss the components necessary for a mobility assistance program's success.

- Fair Housing Awards Presentations: Antonio Riley, Midwest Regional Administrator, U.S. Dept. of HUD; Scott Bush, VP of Operations, Greater Milwaukee Association of Realtors
