13 MOELLER, Jason L, Agent for "P T G, LLC", Class B Tavern and Public Entertainment Premises License Renewal Applications for "COOP'S TAVERN" at 1577 W MORGAN Av. (Expires 11/4/2016)

The applicant stated a lot of the incidents are occurring outside the premises after patrons leave and he is not responsible. He added that neighbors are not complaining to him.

*Appearing with the applicant:
Lynn Moeller, 1577 W Morgan stated she is the wife of the applicant and a police officer and was assaulted by patrons. She stated residents are not present to complain and she has not been contacted by Ald. Witkowski. She stated they have not received complaints and all the problems in the area are not the responsibility of the bar. She added that restraining orders have been placed against some of the subjects in the police report and there haven't been problems since. She stated the complaints are anonymous and the premises has not received any citations.*

*Individual also present:
Ald. Witkowski stated the neighbors wouldn't be complaining if the premises didn't exist and he would like progressive discipline because the behavior isn't changing. He stated he hasn't received any complaints since May. He added last year the applicant used the same excuse about incidents occurring outside his bar that he is not responsible because the patrons left the bar. He stated other taverns in his district are not experiencing these problems.
Ald. Zielinski stated the applicant's responses are troubling because he is stating that the premises is not responsible for the actions of patrons after they leave. He recommends hiring a consultant because he doesn't believe the applicant knows how to effectively run his business and does not have a corrective plan of action.
Ald. Zielinski moved for a 30 day suspension based on the police report and aldermanic and applicant testimony. (Prevailed 5-0)*

Appearing on behalf of the applicant:

Atty. Andrew Arena requested to surrender the license and withdraw the renewal application. He added that the problems seem to be operator error. He believes it will be boarded up and will be a blight on the neighborhood, but another operator should have the opportunity to try to have a successful business. He added giving the unfit location designation will put a financial strain on the applicant.

Individuals also present in opposition:

Capt. Boris Turcinovic stated the premises is not being run responsibly and too many department resources are being used for problems at the premises. He opposes the renewal.

Lydia Melton 3315 N 40th St stated she has called the alderman's office many times to complain. She added patrons of the premises have destroyed her property, and bullets have gone through her windows. She stated the applicant does not know how to run the business.

Hazel Johnson 3939 W Concordia Ave stated she has had problems with the premises since it opened. She added the patrons park in her lot and in front of her garage.

Jewel Henry 3301 N 40th St stated when the premises is open there is chaos and when the premises is closed it is peaceful and quite. She often sees litter from the premises and a patron broke her car window. She added there are fights and she has called the police many times.

Ruthie Brock 3301 N 40th St stated she has called the applicant regarding trash and has cleaned up the trash herself multiple times because she got no response. She added she is elderly and cannot always be cleaning up after the patrons. She stated she cleaned up two trash bags worth of liquor bottles, glassware, and other litter from the premises.

Ald. Rainey stated he is disheartened by all the testimony from the neighbors regarding the problems from the premises. He added his residents have the right to live in a safe and peaceful environment.

Ald. Rainey moved denial of the surrender of the licenses. (Prevailed 5-0)
