Dear Sir or Madam:

I received a letter from you stating that you were denying my claim for $287.88 for the damage done to my vehicle on June 7, 2006 when a tire fell off a City dump truck into my lane of traffic on Good Hope Road and N. 51st Boulevard.

I am requesting a hearing for this matter. This is in regards to C.I. File No: 06-V-114.

I look forward to hearing from you as to when this will occur. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Amy Werdin

2006 JUN 29 PM 1:32
RONALD J. LEONARDI
CITY CLERK

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am filing a claim against the City of Milwaukee in regards to an incident that happened on Wednesday, June 7, 2006. I am seeking $287.88 in damages that occurred to my car as a result of this incident.

On Wednesday, June 7, 2006 at approximately 8:15am I was driving east on Good Hope Road, just before the railroad overpass by N. 51st Boulevard. Good Hope Road is a 4-lane divided road. I was in the right lane. As I was driving, a large yellow City of Milwaukee dump truck traveling in the left lane passed by me. As the truck passed me and was now two cars ahead of me I saw a large tire fly out of the top of the truck and land in my lane of traffic. The car in front of me ran the tire over and then I proceeded to run it over as well as there was no where else for me to go. Both of us pulled over to assess the damage to our cars. The woman in front of me had two flat tires. I had one flat tire due to a bent rim on my front right passenger side.

I then had to have my car towed to a dealership where they had to replace the rim and adjust the alignment.

I have attached the invoice from the dealership, which shows the monetary damages incurred and paid for as a result of this incident. I have also attached a photo of the rim that was bent when I ran over the tire that fell out of the dump truck.

I appreciate you taking the time to consider my claim and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Amy Werdin
