

STOP

BLIFE

OFFICE OF VIOLENCE PREVENTION BLACK MALE ACHIEVEMENT ADVISORY COUNCIL UPDATE

SHANA KIDD
Youth Injury and Violence
Prevention Coordinator, City
of Milwaukee Health Department Office of Violence Prevention

Update

- Trauma Response Team
- Summer Violence Prevention
- Coaching Boys to Men

Trauma Response Team

- Expanded to Milwaukee Fire Department
  - All Fire Fighters and EMT's have received trauma response training
- 2 new clinicians hired
- Focus on increasing community referrals from youth coaches, mentors, schools and youth serving agencies

Incident Type per Month

July-September 2018

Incident Type	July	August	September
Battery	2	1	0
Burglary	0	1	0
Child Abuse	0	8	1
Child Neglect	0	1	0
Damage to Property	0	0	1
Domestic Violence	18	17	11
Endangering Safety	1	0	2
Homocide	0	3	0
Multiple Calls	0	1	1
Operating while Intoxicated	0	0	1
Robbery	2	5	0
Sexual Assault	2	5	3
Shooting	4	1	1
Trouble with Subject	1	0	0

Number of Referrals by Source

- ❖ 89 Referrals for services received during this period
- ❖ 39 Referrals from MPD District 7 in August
- ❖ Priority to increase community referrals in 2019
- ❖ MFD completed training during this period
- ❖ Domestic violence remains highest incident for referral

COMMUNITY RESPONSE TO VIOLENCE

- ❖ After 14 straight homicides the first 14 days of August, OVP called community residents together to lead a 21 day response
- ❖ 139 community members came to first meeting and identified activities focused on outreach, conflict mediation, healing, and communications.
- ❖ Over 100 residents trained in conflict mediation
- ❖ 15 community events supported throughout north and south side
- ❖ Counseling services provided to 3 families
- ❖ Over $300,000 in funding to 11 agencies serving over 2,000 youth for summer programming via ReCast Milwaukee (June-Sept.)
- ❖ 5 night walk/canvassing events
- ❖ Supported Guns Down Miltown Campaign

Coaching Boys to Men

- Program developed by Futures Without Violence
- Piloting with 25 coaches throughout Milwaukee
- Currently reaching over 200 young men
- Focused on healthy masculinity, relationships, respect, and sexual assault and domestic violence prevention
- Supported by Commission on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault
- Intend to expand city-wide in 2019 and statewide by 2020

