To whom it may concern, i would like to tell you that the driver/owner of cab #545, his name is Harpreet Singh, was admitted in St Francis hospital (3237 S. 16th street) on 10/12/2016. because he is an alcoholic and his Liver is totally damaged. He was on the ventilator machine for 2 days. Now he is about to be discharged in few days. He already has an OWI couple years back, so UBER fired him for public safety. But still he drinks n drive since he is an alcoholic. Even some cutomers complained about him that they smelled alcohol on him.

I am Harpreet Singh, and i am concerned about his alcoholic addiction. He should not be allowed to drive anymore, he has been in hospital before and doctors told him not to drink anymore. But Harpreet singh doesn't stop drinking.

So he is a danger for the public and for himself. If you let him keep driving, sooner or later he will harm someone.

So please take this matter serious because it is a life and death matter of public.

Cancel his PPL so that he can get a job where he will be tied up for 8-10 hrs a day and wont be able to drive around drunk with passengers.

I emailed a copy of this to the Sheriff dept, and to local news. Beacause we cant have alcoholics taxi drivers in Milwaukee city.

Thanks.

I just took cab #911 from the airport to W Adler St. The driver did not have a license displayed and therefore I do not have a name. He did not follow the directions I gave and took me well out of the way, costing me nearly double what this usually costs. He then asked for my credit card which the posted rules clearly stated he should not do. I am very displeased with the service of this driver and company.

Hello —

I rode in Kisima Cab (#898) on December 18 at approximately 0145 from the airport to the Comfort Inn & Suites (6200 S. 13th), a $9 ride that was charged $18 per city regulations on the minimum required fee. I gave the driver a $20 bill and he refused to give me change, claiming that the remainder was an appropriate tip for him. I repeated requested $2 back, since the $18 minimum was already a 100% tip, and he refused. He did not provide a complaint card on request — I had to find this address on the web. I would like to formally lodge a complaint against him and seek revocation of his license.

Thanks very much,

Subject: TAXI CAB Complaint

I had to take a taxi from the airport to my home on December 26, 2016 at approximately 4:45 PM. The taxi company was KASIMA (spelling?) and the taxi number was 898.

- 1) The taxi was filthy, absolutely filthy. I still feel dirty toady, December 27, 2016
- 2) The driver spoke very limited English. When I attempted to tell him the directions to my home, he insisted on entering the address into his telephone on google maps. He kept saying "Googly, googly." I was reluctant to give him my information because he would have my home address permanently in his phone. But, my 88 year old friend who was with me really needed to get home. I was the one who had to enter the information on his cell phone because he did not understand anything I was telling him. (How can your department license someone with such limited command of the language most commonly spoken by the people he is supposed to drive?)

- 3) In our drive from the airport entrance ramp to the freeway to the Ryan Road exit, he was honked at two different times by two different vehicles as he swerved from lane to lane without blinkers. He is a danger to all of his passengers, and to all drivers on the road.
- 4) Once on Ryan Road heading west, he drove in the parking lane from south 27th Street to approximately 38th Street. I kept telling him to "get out of this lane" but he did not understand.
- 5) At my home, I asked him for a receipt for the cost of the ride, $29.50, and he just looked at me. I asked him again, and he shrugged his shoulders.
- 6) Also at my home, he got very loud with me in my driveway in very broken English when I tried to take a picture of the name of his cab company on the side of his vehicle. I am now extremely concerned that he has my address in his telephone.

I'm very concerned that this man will continue to drive at least until his license comes up for renewal. (That could be a day from now, or a year from now. Who really knows???) He is unsafe and a danger to all other drivers. Your department should also be very concerned about this menace on the road. But, as Linda told me on the telephone on December 27, 2016, "...there is nothing we can do until his license comes up for renewal."

REDACTED RECORD

Respected Sir/Mam,

I am writing this letter in regards to the complaint against a Taxi Cab Driver - 237. His name is Vikramjit Verma. He has convicted a felony. His license was expired on December 14th, 2017. But ~~we~~ I saw him driving cab with the customer inside his cab. There are also other Taxi Drivers ^{who} saw him driving and working. Yellow Cab Company had already suspended him and his ID. But he is using his dad's ID and driving the cab.

There was a meeting for his license in ~~December~~ November, 2015. The complaint was same. But he was suspended at that time too. Also, he committed a crime too, by lying under oath in the license committee. The DA office has all the evidences against him as per the police investigation. He should also be charged with Perjury as it is a felony to lie under oath with the government and city officials in front of him. And not once, he has done this many times.

REDACTED RECORD

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to you regarding the most dangerous cab ride ever.

Cab driver attempted to take me out of the way in an effort to secure a higher fee. When I spoke up, immediately he began to belligerent me by acknowledging I had been drinking by saying "you drunk, shut up". I had used same service for drop off and the cost was $12.00, and with pick up fee was $12.25. Had I not spoke up I am sure it would have been higher.

When the time came to pay I inserted credit card in chip reader, he said came up invalid. I knew card was valid so inserted again he said invalid again. I opened door to exit he began to drive while my foot was on the ground at an accelerated speed for about half block screaming I am going to take you to the police station. Grant you I am a senior citizen, and was being dropped off at a known senior building.

Upon arrival to police station I gave cab driver same card in presence of officer. In retrospect the chip reader wasn't working. Driver so unprofessional and angry I would not let him take me out of the way, he had not the ability to try the card himself initially. Office was extremely apologetic as well as providing me with information as how I could make a complaint.

Please review the enclosures in that I have previously wrote to the cab company regarding the ordeal.

Complaint: Driver L. Reid, Cab 187, Dr ID#205834

On 09/16/2017, I experienced the worst cab ride ever. Driver tried taking me for a ride (cash up). I spoke up immediately. Just as quick driver began to belligerent me by acknowledging I had been drinking. He screamed at me "you drunk, shut-up."

Took me home, I inserted card for the $12.25 fee, (whereas previous ride same distance cost 12.00) he said came up invalid. In that I knew card was valid I opened door put foot on ground and he drug me from back door of Westlawn Garden parking for seniors for about half a block screaming I am going to take you to the police station. We went to police station I used same card by swiping as your card chip insert obviously was not working, in retrospect.

was greatly inconvenienced. Also I am of age to drink, do have auto, knew I was going to be drinking and decided to be responsible and use your service as I had done before and still will because you come quick to area. I was not drunk. Officer called me another cab and was extremely apologetic. A fifteen minute ride turned into a two and a half hour ordeal.

Please be advised that I am disputing fee.

Subject: Not using correct permit/ guy left me stranded and took off with my cash

On the Early morning of Friday March 3rd, I called for a cab because I forgot my keys At My girlfriends near Prospect on the east side... I took a picture of the back of the cab driver's seat because the driver seemed off and kind of shady... This was a round trip.. he agreed 40 cash for round trip if we did not use the meter.. when we got to the residence that was my destination, my girlfriend was standing in the lobby of the apartment building...she was hesitant to come out due to the cab driver's aggressive disposition.. She wanted to call 911, but I told her I did not think he spoke good English and he didn't knew what exactly was being said.. I was 7nsure and scared because I had things in the car.. I also had more money in a little purse inside the cab ... I didn't expect him to take off.. I know he seen me take a picture of the permit inside the cab. This company was American United 414-220-5000. I tried to speak with someone about this incident today March 6th at 414-220-5000. The supposed supervisor was rude, and was making it very difficult for me to explain what happened especially after she kept telling me I had the wrong cab permit inside the car. I insisently told her I took a picture of it, and now was alarmed that they are not using real cab permits.. They could be using random ones and letting anyone drive in them... she had allot of the facts wrong.. it was a round trip.. the cab driver wanted to make a cash deal,... he than switched plans when I arrived at my friends place to pick up the keys, he insisted I swipe my card. My card was good and I also can prove through my bank my card is good . He kept saying it was bad ... he sped off with me screaming to stop, which he didnt.. he had all my cash ... in another little black purse wallet thing in the back.. my pick up destination was 6050 s. 27th st... the lady kept telling me it was cab 28, now I am sending you an attached picture of the the cab permit I took that night.. I also tried to call back that night and spoke to a deep voiced woman who I tried explaining that the driver stranded me and she hung up on me.... this company demonstrated unprofessionalism to the very most shameful degree.. DOES THIS LOOK LIKE A 28 TO YOU?????. U CAN REACH ME AT:
