A message from Russell Rossetto about the Milwaukee Streetcar project.

Do you support the Milwaukee Streetcar? Yes

Message: The streetcar plan is evidence of what this city CAN do. Kudos to the department of public works, the common council and the mayor for saving face for the city and putting tens of millions of infrastructure money to use before we embarrassingly loose it. Rolling up your sleeves and serving the future needs of the city is what you're there for. The fact that you've stayed on task despite all of the frivolous obstacles thrown your way is a testament to your sound resolution and dedication to the city. Many thanks for your work so far, now let's see this thing through. As a Milwaukee resident and business owner who wants a thriving, competitive, forward looking city rather than a city without vision and without movement, you've got my full and enthusiastic support.
