INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Menzel Jr., Richard J 015949

07/30/2018

This report is written by P.O. Richard J. MENZEL, Jr. assigned to District 2, Late Shift.

On MON 07-30-2018 at 2:22 am squad 2390, P.O. Miguel BENITEZ and myself, was dispatched to a report of an Officer Assist at 1619 S. 1st St. the Points View Bar where off duty police officers were detaining a female subject. Upon arrival I spoke to the bartender, identified as Kristina L. NAILEN (W/F, 06-01-86), who stated that the female came in just before 2 am and immediately began harassing other customers and trying to pick fights with them. NAILEN told the subject, later identified as Selena R. PARADA (W/F, 11-28-93) that she had to leave. NAILEN informed me that was when PARADA tried to "jump" the bar. Security and other patrons, who were off duty police officers, escorted PARADA out of the location.

I next spoke to the Agent, who was on scene at the time of the incident, identified as RAMOS-GARCIA, who stated that the female came into the location and tried to pick fights with the patrons and staff. She was escorted out of the bar and that he didn't want to prosecute. I checked the license for the bar which was a class B tavern, license# BTAVN-0205651, Exp. 08-07-2018. approx. 11:30am, Seth M. Gron, W/M, 12-21-1984, came into the Milwaukee Police District 2 Station to file a robbery and substantial battery complaint.

According to Gron, on 09/29/2018, he and his friends came to the City and County of Milwaukee, WI., up from Illinois, to attend a concert that they found out was cancelled. Instead, Gron and his friends then went to dinner, and then decided to enter the Points View Boite Lounge, located at 1619 S. 1st St., at approx. 11:30pm. While inside the lounge after approximately a half hour, Gron stated that he went up to the bar to reorder drinks and return to the table with his friends. Upon returning and without prior incident or verbal confrontation, Gron stated that he was attacked by approx. 13-15 H/M suspects. During the attack initially, Gron stated that he was hit in the face with a beer bottle by an unknown H/M suspect, which knocked him to the ground. Once on the ground, Gron stated that all suspects repeatedly punched and kicked him several times. During the attack, Gron stated that he observed the lounge's bouncers intervene and assist in the beat down of him. Gron stated that one of the bouncers then dragged him inside a nearby bathroom and pulled off his three chain necklaces from around his neck, which left marks around his neck in the removal. Shortly thereafter, Gron stated that he got to his feet and was able to flee the lounge, reuniting with his friends outside of the establishment.

Gron stated that both the multiple batteries and robbery was done without his consent. Gron described that the three chain necklaces were 18kt gold chains, two having religious pendants on them, were family heirlooms with an approx. value of $5,000 total. Gron stated that after he regrouped with his friends, he and his friends headed back to the Chicagoland area. When asked why he did not call police at the time, Gron stated that he just wanted to get back home and attend to his wounds. The next morning, Gron stated that he went to seek medical attention at the Silver Cross Hospital; a hospital near his residence in Illinois. According to the medical staff at the hospital, they concluded that Gron had sustained a broken nose, two lacerations to his left eye lid requiring a butterfly strip to secure one of the lacerations, and a sliced upper left facial cheek which required medical glue to secure. Gron also explained that he had right eye orbital bruised, a bruising and swelling to the left side of his head, and marks around his neck where his chains were pulled from him. I observed Gron's injuries as he pointed them out in explanation. The injuries appeared consistent with how he explained he received the injuries. P.O. Michael Dukat took several pictures of Gron's injuries and filed a supplement report regarding.

Gron also provided me the identification information of two of the friends he was with during the time of occurrence. After gathering all necessary reporting information, I gave Gron a PV-17. Gron stated that despite him living in Illinois, he was willing to help prosecute any/all suspects involved in these crimes against him. Gron simply requested that adequate time be given to him when he needs to appear for both the District Attorney and Court, so he can arrange to take the day off from work to travel back to Milwaukee.

After gathering the information, I notified my shift commander, Lt. Mark Wroblewski, of this incident. Lt. Wroblewski instructed me to file this matter and he would assign a patrol officer to conduct a follow up investigation at the lounge when it reopened at 9pm. Gron was then sent on his way and informed that the Milwaukee Police Department would continue to keep in contact with him during the investigation for any follow up questions and instructions.

 Interview of Adrian R. Sandoval ***

I contacted Adrian R. Sandoval, H/M, 08-16-1987 via telephone with the information that was provided to me by Gron. Sandoval was contacted by telephone because he lives in Homer Glen, IL. Once I made contact with Sandoval, he confirmed his identity and explained his version of the incident which he witnessed.

According to Sandoval, he was with Gron at the time of occurrence and observed the entire attack, minus the period when the bouncer dragged him into the bathroom and relieved him of the gold chains. Sandoval stated that he was amazed that approx. 10-15 H/M suspects attacked Gron, without previous provocation. Sandoval stated that while Gron was being attacked, he tried to intervene and mediate the attack, but was held back by the lounge bouncers. Sandoval stated that he observed one H/M use a bottle and smash Gron in the face with it. Sandoval stated that he observed a bouncer also join in on the attack and repeatedly punch Gron, and then pulled him into a nearby bathroom. Sandoval stated that once Gron was dragged into the bathroom, he started to gather his friends and exit the bar. Sandoval stated that he rejoined with Gron outside the bar and immediately left the area.

Sandoval stated that the group of friends went to another friend's house over by the Marquette University neighborhoods. After attending to Gron's injuries the best they could, Sandoval stated that they returned to Illinois and dropped off Gron at his residence.

Sandoval stated that both he and Gron were with several friends, but was very limited in knowing additional identification information. Sandoval did provide me with an additional friend/witness by the name of Adrian Moreno and provided Moreno's phone number of (630) 550-0069. Sandoval stated that they also were with his cousin Selena Lopez of Milwaukee, but could not provide contact information on her.

Sandoval informed me that prior to me contacting him, he scanned Facebook to see if he could find any of the assailants from the lounge. According to Sandoval, Points View Boîte Lounge had a Facebook page with several pictures of patrons. Sandoval identified three suspects from past pictures which were posted previously on the Facebook page. I instructed Sandoval to email me the pictures to my official Milwaukee Police Department email account. Sandoval went on to say that it appears that the suspects all belonged to some sort of "car club" according to the pictures and comments left on Facebook. One of the pictures that Sandoval sent was the suspect that he witnessed using a bottle to smash Gron in the face with, causing the laceration that needed to be glued by medical staff. Another picture Sandoval sent was that of the lounge bouncer who dragged Gron into the bathroom, who allegedly removed Gron's three 18kt gold chain necklaces forcefully from his neck. The third suspect picture that Sandoval sent was also witnessed by Sandoval beating Gron during the group attack.

I informed Sandoval to continue to search for any/all suspects he could find and send those pictures on to me for this investigation.

After hanging up with Sandoval, I attempted to contact Adrian Moreno via telephone, but only received a voicemail message. I left message with Moreno identifying me as a Milwaukee Police Officer who was investigating this crime. On 10/05/2018, I attempted to contact Moreno again, but received a voicemail

This report is typed by PO Oscar ESPITIA assigned to District Two, Late Power Shift, and Tavern Squad 2464.

On Sunday November 11, 2018 at approximately 2:00 AM PO MUNOZ told me Saturday morning he had a walk in complaint regarding Point View Boite located at 1619 S. 1st St. The complainant identified herself as Maria S. FARIAS (W/F, 04/21/91).

FARIAS told PO MUNOZ she was involved in a fight inside Point View Boite club but didn't wish to be a victim of any crime. FARIAS continued to state the reason she was speaking to the Police was because after the fight while she was standing in the outside patio a unknown subject pulled a hand gun and said something in the effect of "that's why I always have my gun with me". FARIAS stated she just wanted us the police to be aware due to the resent shooting at District Night club. PO MUNOZ advised FARIAS that he would pass on the information to tavern car and wrote down FARIAS information for me.

On Sunday November 11, 2018 at approximately 2:20 AM I spoke to owner of Point View Boite, Marcos A. RAMOS-GARCIA (W/M, 03/01/85), regarding the incident. RAMOS-GARCIA stated he did have a incident on Friday but no one actually hit each other, it was more of pushing and shoving. RAMOS-GARCIA stated there was never any gun inside the club. RAMOS-GARCIA stated he hired 3 Midwest Police armed security guards and 3 unarmed in house security guards. RAMOS-GARCIA stated they pad every patron male and females, check female's purses and card everyone before entering the club. RAMOS-GARCIA told me to meet him on Wednesday November 14, 2018 and he would show me the surveillance footage.

On Wednesday November 14, 2018 at approximately 8:40 PM I meet with RAMOS-GARCIA and watched the surveillance footage of the incident.

The following is what observed in the video footage.

The camera view is labeled as Men's bathroom and the date and time stamp was 11/10/18 12:48 AM. Approximately 50 people were dancing in the dance floor, a unknown, male wearing a light colored sweater dark pant, shoulder length curly hair in a ponytail stands behind a female who was identified as FARIAS and tries to dance with her. FARIAS immediately walks away from the subject and he follows her. It looks like FARIAS begins to argue with the subject, then she pushes him.

The subject then pushes her back and security separates them. FARIAS friend who was identified as Adriana throws a glass beer bottle at the subject and misses. VALENCIA then continues to attempt to fight the unknown subject till her and FARIAS get escorted to the outdoor smoking patio.

I then observe on camera labeled patio, and date and time stamp of 11/10/18 12:55 AM FARIAS and VALENCIA outside talking to a different male subject wearing a brown sweat shirt dark pant, black hair in a hair bun. I also observe 6'00" 300 lbs. wearing a black knitted cap with a the word SECURITY on it standing by FARIA, VALENCIA and the unknown male subject. They talk for approximately 3 minutes and then they are all escorted outside.

RAMOS-GARCIA stated he had both parties kick out. The male subject was asked to leave because he pushed another patron and FARIAS and VALENCIA because they threw a beer bottle. RAMOS-GARCIA stated he asked both parties not to return.

End of RAMOS-GARCIA statements...

I spoke to FARIAS via-telephone and asked her what happened. FARIAS stated she has been at Point View Boite several times and never had a incident. FARIAS stated her and her friends never get padded down for weapons. FARIAS stated on the day of the incident a unknown male attempted to dance with her. FARIAS stated she moved away from the subject but he followed her and told her if she knew who he was. She stated they got into a argument and she pushed him away and he pushed her.

FARIAS stated while standing outside in the patio a different unknown male approached her and VALENCIA and apologized to them for his brother actions. FARIAS stated she really didn't pay attention to what the subject was saying but she saw him holding a Black Hand gun. FARIAS stated the subject never made threats or pointed the gun at anyone.

May it be noted I didn't observe anyone holding a firearm on the surveillance footage.

FARIAS told me she just wanted us the police to be aware of the incident.

TAVERN REPORT

Parlier, John H 029213

12/23/2018

This License Premise Report is written by P.O. John PARLIER, assigned to the Second District, Early Shift.

On Sunday, December 23, 2018 at 1:58 AM Squad 2342 (myself in full duty uniform operating a marked MPD squad and equipped with an Axon body camera) was dispatched to a Subject with a Gun call for service at the intersection S. 2nd Street and W. Lapham Boulevard. The address of the incident was later discovered to be 1619 S. 1st Street, Point's View Boite.

I arrived at 2:03 AM. I spoke to the caller, Willie L. THOMAS (b/m, 07-18-94), a security guard for the bar, who stated that at approximately 1:50 AM, shortly after he and his fellow security guard, Brandon R. LEWIS (b/m, 02-27-93), escorted what they described as a pair of short Hispanic twin brothers (no name or identifying information) out of the bar, two unknown white (Hispanic) male subjects pulled up in front of the bar in a dark blue BMW (no license plate) and made threats to, "shoot up the place." THOMAS stated that the subject sitting in the front passenger seat of the vehicle displayed a firearm and waved it in the air visible through the open car window. THOMAS demanded that the subject put the gun away and the subject complied. The two subjects that THOMAS and LEWIS kicked out of the bar got into the back seat of the vehicle and all four subjects drove off southbound on S. 1st Street.

At 2:25 AM I notified the licensing agent for the establishment, Marcos A. RAMOS-GARCIA (w/m, 03-01-85) that I would complete a License Premise Report. I did not observe any tavern violations and RAMOS-GARCIA, along with both THOMAS and LEWIS, were very cooperative.

TAVERN REPORT

Gutierrez, Adrian 028462

02/03/2019

This report is written by P.O. Adrian GUTIERREZ assigned Squad 2472 with P.O. Nathan POVLIICK assigned to District Two, Late Power Shift.

P.O. POVLIICK and I were in full duty MPD uniform and in a marked MPD squad (squad 285) with working lights and sirens. P.O. POVLIICK and I are both equipped with Axon body worn cameras.

On Sunday, February 3, 2019, at approximately 2:10 AM, we dispatched to Point View Boite bar (1619 S. 1st St) regarding shots fired heard by Squad 2342 (P.O. Eric ROBILLARD and P.O. Jason STACHOWIAK) while they were on patrol of the 1600 block of S. 1st St.

Upon arrival, P.O. STACHOWIAK and P.O. ROBILLARD observed casing on the ground and in floor board of the vehicle (after the driver door was opened by driver) Jonathan J. RODRIGUEZ (W/M, 7-20-98) was sitting in. RODRIGUEZ was in the driver seat of the vehicle and was the only occupant of the vehicle. RODRIGUEZ was arrested and conveyed to District 2 for processing. Two hand guns were recovered in the vehicle. One under the driver's seat and one on the floor board of the right rear passenger. 13.61 grams a green leafy substance that tested positive for THC was also located inside the vehicle.

During processing RODRIGUEZ stated he knew the bouncer/security that was checking identifications at the door of Point View Boite. RODRIGUEZ did not provide a name for the bouncer/security. RODRIGUEZ stated they did not ask for his identification and just checked him for weapons and let him inside the establishment today.

During a Mirandized interview of RODRIGUEZ performed by Detective Adrian HARRIS, RODRIGUEZ stated he was able to gain entry into the bar because 4 months ago he gave the bouncers $100. RODRIGUEZ stated on that day it was Isabella URIEGAS birthday party.

Brandon R. LEWIS (B/M, 2-27-93) stated he works at Point View Boite as security. LEWIS stated he was outside the bar because it was bar close. LEWIS stated he was trying to keep 2 groups separated because they were arguing, and to keep them from fighting outside the bar. LEWIS stated one group left towards the parking lot of Scrub a Dub (1635 S. 1st St.) which is next to the bar. Patrons from the tavern use Scrub a Dub parking lot due to the car wash being closed at the time the bar is open.

Case #:190340014

LEWIS stated he heard multiple gunshot coming from the parking lot, but did not see who shot due to him being in front of the bar. LEWIS stated he made his way towards the parking lot and observed people running and screaming.

The owner/agent, Marcos A. RAMOS-GARCIA (W/M, 3-1-85), stated it was bar close. RAMOS-GARCIA stated 2 groups were arguing outside the tavern. RAMOS-GARCIA stated he was inside the tavern when he heard multiple gun shots outside the tavern. RAMOS-GARCIA stated he kept the people that were in the tavern inside for their safety. RAMOS-GARCIA stated he walked out the rear door and observed police with a subject, RODRIGUEZ, in handcuffs. RAMOS-GARCIA stated possibly the person that discharged the firearm outside the location was not a patron of the bar.

RAMOS-GARCIA stated he only has surveillance cameras inside the bar and in front of the bar. RAMOS-GARCIA stated he does not have any surveillance cameras on the side of the bar facing Scrub A Dub parking lot next to the tavern. RAMOS-GARCIA was advised to consider putting surveillance cameras on the side facing the parking lot due to his patron parking there.

The owner, RAMOS-GARCIA, and the securities of Point View Boite were cooperative during our investigation.

Point View Boite bar has a Class B Tavern License (BTAVN#0206929, Effective date 1-14-19, Expiration date 8-7-19).

This report is written by written by PO Benjamin SPITZER, Assigned to District Two, Late Power.

On Sunday, February 3rd, 2019 while assigned to SQ 2464, PO James KNAPINSKI and I, were monitoring bar close at 1619 S. 1st St, Points View Boite.

While the bar was letting patrons out I observed two Hispanic male, later identified as Jesus L. SANTIAGO (W/M, 04-08-88) and Jose O. RODRIGUEZ-TORRES (W/M, 06-11-98), exit the bar yelling at each other in an aggressive manner. I called for additional squads in case the verbal altercation turned physical. The licensee, identified as Marcos RAMOS-GARCIA (W/M, 03-01-85), was on scene and cooperative. RAMOS-GARCIA and security were assisting with attempting to get the subjects to leave. SANTIAGO and RODRIGUEZ-TORRES argued in the parking lot for approximately 15 minutes before finally getting in a vehicle and leaving the area southbound in the rear alley towards W. Lapham St.

SANTIAGO and RODRIGUEZ-TORRES were heavily intoxicated and appeared to have been over served. Both subjects refused to leave the parking lot after receiving multiple verbal commands from Officers and security guards to leave. I advised RAMOS-GARCIA that his bartenders should refuse service to highly intoxicated subjects who was cooperative.

A fight was called in by a citizen in the 1600-block of S. 2nd St. involving several patrons who were observed leaving the parking lot of the listed tavern. On arrival to the fight several vehicles fled the area at a high rate of speed, and two subjects SANTIAGO and RODRIGUEZ-TORRES, were left on scene of the fight. SANTIAGO and RODRIGUEZ-TORRES were issued citations for Disorderly Conduct for their involvements in the fight.

Yariceliz Ramos Vazquez, squad 2330.

On Sunday, April 7th 2019, at 4:16 AM, we were dispatched to a Battery complaint at St Luke's Hospital, located in the city and county of Milwaukee, WI.

Upon arrival, we spoke to the victim, Melanie M. DeJESUS (W/F, 05/27/88), went to the District Two Station to report the incident and then went to St. Luke's Hospital to receive treatment for her injuries.

DeJESUS stated that she has a toxic relationship with the suspect, Amber M. HERNANDEZ (W/F, 09/22/89), that has lasted years because they once shared the same "baby daddy". DeJESUS stated that she hadn't seen HERNANDEZ in over a year. However, because of the "bad blood" that they've had, as soon as they saw each other today inside the Pointe View Bar, they immediately engaged in a physical altercation. Parties were separated by friends, and DeJESUS stated that when she exited the bar at 2:30 AM, she saw that HERNANDEZ was waiting for her standing on the South side of the building. DeJesus stated that HERNANDEZ was hiding her right hand behind her, and thought it was going to be "round two" of fighting when HERNANDEZ lifted a glass bottle and hit DeJESUS on the upper right side of her head near her forehead. The bottle broke with the impact, causing several cuts on DeJESUS' face. I observed a bump on the right side of DeJESUS' forehead near the hairline that was turning purple along with several small cuts that looked like scratches near the area of the bump on the right side of DeJESUS' forehead. I also observed a 3-4 inch laceration on DeJESUS' right cheek that began near the right eye and ended approximately 1/2 inch away from the corner of the mouth.

DeJESUS stated that the business' security were on scene and observed the incident happen. According to DeJESUS, as soon as she was injured, Pointe View Security escorted her to her vehicle. DeJESUS did not see in which direction HERNANDEZ went. DeJESUS went home and called a friend, who later brought her to District Two Station to file a complaint.

DeJESUS was admitted at 3:45 AM to Aurora St. Luke's Hospital and treated by Dr. HIBERT. DeJESUS received 10 stitches on her laceration.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Froh, Aaron W 028777

06/09/2019

This report is written by P.O. Aaron FROH, assigned to District Two, Late Shift.

On Sunday, May 19, 2019 at approximately 4:56 a.m., P.O. Thomas SLOWINSKI and I, Squad 2340 were dispatched to an entry call at Points View Boite which is located at 1619 S. 1st St. P.O. Richard MENZEL of Squad 2390 was also dispatched to assist.

Upon arrival, we make contact with the owner, Marcos RAMOS-GARCIA (w/m, 03-01-1985) and key-holder, Eric SUTTON (w/m, 05-17-1973). Myself, P.O. MENZEL and P.O. SLOWINSKI helped clear the bar. While clearing the bar, we observed damage to a TV, broken bottles behind the counter.

While clearing the men's bathroom, P.O. SLOWINSKI, discovered a bullet hole through the glass window on the north side of the bathroom and struck the bathroom wall.

P.O. SLOWINSKI located another bullet hole that struck north side of the bar, on the outside but did not penetrate through. P.O. SLOWINSKI located two 9mm Silver Luger Hornady casings on the south side of street at approximately between 100 W. Lapham St. and 200 W. Lapham St.

I was able to retrieve a bullet fragment from the men's bathroom located on the south side wall that went through the window.

I spoke to RAMOS-GARCIA who stated that the bullet holes were not there before he got there.

INTERVIEW WITH SUTTON

I spoke to SUTTON who lives above the bar and stated at approximately 4:30 a.m., he heard the sound of bottles hitting a hard surface and then shortly after he heard a thump then heard two gunshots outside.

END OF INTERVIEW

I inventoried the casings and bullet fragment that were recovered.

I took photographs of the scene, casings, and bullet fragment. See my supplemental report regarding the photographs taken.

Captain Ramirez,

I just received a shots fired complaint related to Points View Boîte, 1619 south first street. The shots fired allegedly occurred early this morning. According to neighbors residing at 128 West Lapham BLVD this is a regular occurrence on weekends.

I have not received any emails (lately) connected to Points View Boîte.

I would appreciate you looking into the complaints and calls for service. If needed I will make myself available for a meeting with applicant at D2.

Regards,

Ald. Perez
