970.25 SEARCH WARRANT RISK ASSESSMENT AND EXECUTION

B. EXECUTION OF A SEARCH WARRANT

3. Notification

a. Patrol Initiated

1. Monday – Friday (8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.). The shift commander of the district in which the warrant is being served shall notify the Technical Communications Division supervisor at extension [REDACTED] and the assistant chief of the Patrol Bureau at extension [REDACTED]
2. Monday – Friday (6:00 p.m. – 8:00 a.m.), weekends, and city holidays. The shift commander of the district in which the warrant is being served shall notify the Technical Communications Division supervisor at extension [REDACTED] and the night watch commander.
3. If the serving officer's district is different from the district where the warrant will be executed, the serving officer's shift commander shall notify the shift commander of the district in which the warrant is being served.

b. Criminal Investigation Bureau Initiated

1. Monday – Friday (8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.). A supervisor assigned to the division that is initiating the search warrant shall notify the Technical Communications Division supervisor at extension [REDACTED], the assistant chief of the Criminal Investigation Bureau at extension [REDACTED] and the shift commander of the district in which the warrant is being served.
2. Monday – Friday (6:00 p.m. – 8:00 a.m.), weekends, and city holidays. A supervisor assigned to the division that is initiating the search warrant shall notify the Technical Communications Division supervisor at extension [REDACTED], the night watch commander, and the shift commander of the district in which the warrant is being served.

Note: The supervisor in charge of executing the warrant shall notify the Technical Communications Division of the district of where the warrant will be executed prior to the execution of the warrant for this entire subsection and not the actual target address. The supervisor in charge of executing the warrant shall notify the Technical Communications Division of the actual target address when the entry team is on scene and approaching the target address to execute the warrant.
