Re: File Number 011341

Dear Ms. Marquardt:

The person described in Exhibit A has submitted a request to the Common Council for the vacation of the City's In Rem Judgment regarding the property described therein. You have requested a report concerning this request.

Our position is that the City took all steps required of it under law to foreclose against the properties at issue. Those steps included allowing the property owner a statutory right of redemption which right was not exercised. Due to the failure to redeem, the City foreclosed against the parcel, and thereby acquired fee simple title foreclosing any interest which the former owner had in the parcel.

Under City Ordinance sec. 304-49-6-c-6, when a timely request for vacation is submitted to the City the final determination with respect to whether property should be returned to the former owner is to be made by the Common Council. If the Common Council so grants approval, the City Attorney's Office may enter into a stipulation providing for all City and County taxes, assessments and charges (including: interest and penalties through the date of the order to vacate the In Rem judgment; administrative and overhead costs of the City Treasurer's Office, the City Attorney's Office, and the Department of City Development; and the cost of repairs made to the property by the City subsequent to the date of the entry of the In Rem judgment) to be paid by cash or cashier's check to the City Treasurer's Office. Payment must be made within 45 days of the date of the resolution of the Common Council approving the return. See, City Ordinance secs. 304-49-6-c-6 through c-9.

In light of the above, and concerning the particular properties at issue, SO LONG AS THE WRITTEN REQUEST FOR VACATION WAS SUBMITTED TO THE CITY WITHIN 45 DAYS OF THE RESPECTIVE IN REM FORECLOSURE JUDGMENT, this office has no objection to the Common Council and/or the Judiciary and Legislation Committee, in its or their discretion, determining that the parcels should be returned to the former owner in accordance with the above-referenced ordinance.

Please call if you have questions or comments.

Respectfully,

GRANT F. LANGLEY
City Attorney
