No interview of the owner or bartenders was conducted due to the fact that this information was given later on in the night.

REDACTED RECORD

José G. Pérez
12th District Alderman

From:
Sent: Saturday, January 19, 2019 1:17 AM
To: Perez, Jose
Cc: Acevedo, Jose
Subject: LVL / former La Cage

Hi Jose,

We just called in a complaint about noise (specifically loud bass) from the LVL club at 801 S 2nd street. The noise was loud enough to wake both our kids. The dispatcher was very nice and took the complaint and contacted a squad to address the issue.

The officer who contacted me about 10 minutes later tried to explain to me that clubs play loud music. He repeatedly told me it was a "loud music establishment" and that there wasn't much they could do about it. Only after I continued to explain the issue to him did he state he would send someone to check it out. Given his reaction it seemed like he was not taking our issue seriously. We were left with the impression that we had done something wrong by calling in a complaint. Did we do something wrong? He refused to provide his name and the dispatcher did not provide a number so I am not sure if a record was made.

This leaves us with a couple of questions:

1. Is this the correct response from the police to a noise complaint and if not what do the police need from us to assist in addressing this issue?
2. What can we do to address this ongoing problem with the LVL club playing loud bass at 1am? It seems like they recently upgraded their sound system or are playing music much louder because it is not uncommon for us to hear the bass even in the back of our home.

THank you,

REDACTED RECORD

José G. Pérez
12th District Alderman.

From:
Sent: Saturday, January 19, 2019 1:17 AM
To: Perez, Jose
Cc: Acevedo, Jose
Subject: LVL / former La Cage

Hi Jose,

We just called in a complaint about noise (specifically loud bass) from the LVL club at 801 S 2nd street. The noise was loud enough to wake both our kids. The dispatcher was very nice and took the complaint and contacted a squad to address the issue.

The officer who contacted me about 10 minutes later tried to explain to me that clubs play loud music. He repeatedly told me it was a "loud music establishment" and that there wasn't much they could do about it. Only after I continued to explain the issue to him did he state he would send someone to check it out. Given his reaction it seemed like he was not taking our issue seriously. We were left with the impression that we had done something wrong by calling in a complaint. Did we do something wrong? He refused to provide his name and the dispatcher did not provide a number so I am not sure if a record was made.

This leaves us with a couple of questions:

1. Is this the correct response from the police to a noise complaint and if not what do the police need from us to assist in addressing this issue?
2. What can we do to address this ongoing problem with the LVL club playing loud bass at 1am? It seems like they recently upgraded their sound system or are playing music much louder because it is not uncommon for us to hear the bass even in the back of our home.

THank you,
