

Ann Louise RanfranzEducation

Knox College, Galesburg, Illinois; BA Psychology, 1975
Teaching Certificate, 1976

University of Wisconsin--Milwaukee, Milwaukee, Wisconsin
Masters of Social Work, 1981

Employment

June, 1982 to Present - Sensitive Crime Victim Services
Milwaukee County District Attorney's Office, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

~~So~~ Director/Advocate--provide supportive services and assistance to victims of sexual assault and child abuse (and their families) as they proceed through the criminal justice system; conduct professional training and community education sessions; supervise four other advocates, a graduate intern, and a secretary.

August, 1988 to ²⁰⁰² Present - Marquette University
Criminal Law Studies, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Instructor--"Domestic Violence and Public Intervention"

May 1982 to 1986 - University of Wisconsin--Milwaukee
School of Education, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Instructor--"Domestic Violence and the Role of the Educator", "Child Abuse: Identification, Intervention, and Prevention within the Schools", and "Review and Evaluation of Child Abuse Prevention Programs and Materials".

February, 1981 to 1982 - Community Education Project, Women's Coalition, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Trainer--researched literature and programs to develop training materials and curriculum on sexual assault, incest, domestic violence, and child abuse and neglect. Also provided in-service training to professionals and volunteers.

December, 1978 to September, 1979 and June to September 1980 - The Rapeline Program, Rochester, Minnesota

Victim Service Worker--direct services of crisis counseling, advocacy, and referrals to victims of sexual assault; public education and professional training; supervision and coordination of volunteers; group facilitator for support group of sexual assault and incest survivors.

January, 1977 to June, 1978 - Galesburg Senior High School,
Galesburg, Illinois

Teacher--taught Sociology, Psychology, Consumer Economics and Minority Studies.

Professional Affiliations

Member of Alpha Delta Mu, National Social Work Honor Society, 1981
Member of Wisconsin Coalition against Sexual Assault
Member of Milwaukee Common Council's Task Force on Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence (chairperson, 1983)
Advanced Practice Social Worker License Number: 902-121