Quarantine procedures as specified in Chapter 78 of the city ordinances (usually for a period of 10-44 days) are necessary for observation purposes and possible medical treatment of the victim. All animal bites must be reported and information is to be documented on a Vicious Animal Report (form PV-1). ## 060.25 VICIOUS ANIMALS

C. CONTROLLING AN ANIMAL WITH LESS THAN DEADLY FORCE

1. Members should consider utilizing means other than deadly force in all circumstances in which it is practical to do so and there is not an imminent threat of great bodily harm. Such alternate means may include, but not limited to, requesting the assistance of MADACC or utilizing equipment such as a capture pole, fire extinguisher, and baton, oleoresin capsicum (OC) or ~~electronic control device (ECD)~~ Conducted Energy Weapon (CEW).
3. If the options in subsection 2 do not appear effective, members may use the following for both canines or other animals:
  - b. ~~An electronic control device (ECD)~~ A CEW may be used on an animal to create a temporary incapacitation in order to restrain and control with a snare. The ~~ECD~~ CEW and OC are less lethal options that can be used in situations where the animal is not deemed an imminent threat to the officer or the public.
  - c. During active deployment of the ~~ECD~~ CEW, the target area for use on an animal is the profile of the body which appears to provide the most muscle mass. If a ~~ECD~~ CEW is used on a stray animal and the probe becomes firmly embedded in a sensitive or potentially deadly part of the animal and the member is unable to effectively remove it, members shall follow the procedures in SOP 060.25(E).
  - d. If active or multiple ~~ECD~~ CEW deployment proves to be ineffective against the animal, officer(s) should reassess the force options available to them and apply the appropriate level of force needed to control the animal and protect the public or officers.
  - e. Deployment of the ~~ECD~~ CEW on an animal should be reported like any other use of force.

Note: Members shall advise MADACC if they use a capture pole, baton, oleoresin capsicum (OC), ~~electronic control device (ECD)~~ CEW, or any other type of force on the animal so MADACC can convey this information to the person receiving or caring for the animal. Members shall include this information on the blue colored form titled Police Request for Services if the animal is dropped off when MADACC is closed.
