

Santino L. Bando – The Bando Chmura Group, LLC

Santino “Sonny” Bando is a partner in The Bando Chmura Group, LLC, a real estate management and development group located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Mr. Bando’s responsibilities include office and investment brokerage, tenant representation, real estate consulting, property management and development.

Mr. Bando has specialized in the redevelopment of historic buildings, including the renovation of two properties located in the former Schlitz Brewery complex into a residential apartment building and Class A office building. Currently Mr. Bando is leading the redevelopment of a 45,000 sq.ft. building in the former Pabst Brewery complex into office and classroom space for Cardinal Stritch University, Wisconsin’s second largest independent University.

Two properties of significance in the portfolio of The Bando Chmura Group is the historic Germania building, located at 135 West Wells Street, and the historic Iron Block building, the only building in the Midwest with a cast iron façade, located at 205 East Wisconsin Avenue, both in downtown Milwaukee.
