

Marilyn Booker

Summary

---

Highly experienced social service professional with extensive background in the domestic violence arena. Able work effectively and independently under challenging circumstances.

Experience

---

January 1989 - present                      Milwaukee County District Attorney                      Milwaukee, WI

Domestic Violence Specialist/Citizen Complaint Evaluator

- Troubleshooting for victims of domestic violence to help navigate the criminal justice system
  - Monitoring deferred prosecution agreements for the domestic violence and child abuse protection units.
  - Provide guidance for citizens filing complaints in an effort to locate appropriate resources
  - Compiling statistics from the domestic violence unit for local, state and federal entities
  - Provide information to community agencies addressing domestic violence issues
-

January 1982- January 1989                      Milwaukee County District Attorney                      Milwaukee, WI

Victim/ Witness Specialist

- Act as a liaison for victims and witnesses of crime in Milwaukee County with the Assistant District Attorneys
  - Advocate for victims rights in the legal arena
  - Directing victims to community resources
-

January 1979- December 1981                      Milwaukee Public Schools                      Milwaukee, WI

School Support Staff

- Working with students and staff to insure a secure educational environment.
-

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS                      Licensed Social Worker- State of Wisconsin

Education

---

December 1978                      University of Wisconsin- Whitewater                      Whitewater, WI

Bachelor of Science

- Social Welfare

References

---

References are available on request.

---