This report is written by Police Officer Gilbert Gwinn, assigned to the License Investigation Unit, Days.

The Milwaukee Police Department's investigation regarding this application revealed the following:

1. On 11/15/06, officers along with a 19 year old Police Aide entered the Encore Tavern 101 S. Dana Ct. The Police Aide was able to order and purchase two beers from the bartender. The bartender was cited for Sale of Alcoholic Beverages to Underage Person.
2. On 02/22/07 officers responded to an injury accident at the Encore, 101 S. Dana Ct. Officers' investigation revealed that a patron was ejected from the tavern for fighting. The fight continued outside where another patron armed himself with a baseball bat. The bat was taken away by a bouncer and the fight quieted down. The applicant learned from a bouncer, that the person with the baseball bat was a longtime friend of his named Reginald, and that Reginald was going to come after him with the bat. The applicant became enraged at this and went outside to confront the friend. Reginald was now in a vehicle and he accelerated that vehicle towards the applicant, striking him and knocking him several feet. Reginald backed up towards the applicant, but struck a bouncer instead, breaking his leg. The applicant stated to officers several times during the investigation that he knew better, not to leave his bar to escalate the fight.

Officers reviewed the tavern's exterior cameras, which showed that the applicant's actions escalated the fight outside. The applicant was cited for Disorderly Premises Prohibited.

A check with Municipal court on 03/11/08 found citation from incident # 2 was never issued.

3. On 02/16/08 at 2:42 am, Milwaukee police were dispatched to 101 S Dana Court for a Call For Police. Investigation found several patrons inside the tavern were involved in a heated argument. Officers were able to view video provided by the owner, Nicholas Monreal, which showed a patron pushing another and the argument continued outside of the tavern where it escalated. Police were called and one of the patrons involved received a resisting/obstructing citation for failing to cooperate with police regarding the investigation.

4. On 06/18/08 at 12:02 am, Milwaukee police were dispatched to 101 S Dana Court for a Battery complaint. Police spoke to the owner Nicolas Monreal who stated the victim was seated inside the club when he saw his ex-girlfriend with another man. The victim began to provoke the ex-girlfriend's boyfriend and a fight ensued. Security broke up the fight and removed the victim from the tavern. The victim waited for the couple to leave the tavern and confronted them both once they left. Another fight occurred and the victim was knocked unconscious. The victim was treated and later released for his injuries at a nearby hospital. The victim was uncooperative with police and did not want to press charges.

5. On 08/01/08 at 12:57 am, Milwaukee police were dispatched to 101 S Dana Court for a Fight complaint. Officers spoke to the caller/victim who stated she and friends were at the Encore drinking and having some fun when security came up to them and asked them to leave because they were receiving complaints that she and friends were soliciting patrons at the bar. The victim stated she didn't argue and that she finished her drink and just "slid" her glass towards the waitress when the waitress grabbed a towel and threw it at the victim, striking her face. The victim stated she got angry and lunged at the waitress when security grabbed the victim from behind and walked her out of the bar along with her friends. Officers spoke with security officer Richard Hayes as well as the bartender Ashley Gonzales who both stated they wanted no citations issued and just wanted the caller and friends out of the tavern. No injuries were reported.

6. On 03/13/10 at 7:52 pm, Milwaukee police were dispatched to 101 S Dana Court for a Sick and Injured. Officers were met by MFD who stated a subject from Montreal was incapacitated by alcohol and subsequently conveyed to a nearby hospital for treatment. Officers located the victim at the hospital and interviewed her. The victim stated she was drinking an unknown number of shots of tequila at the bar and would not provide information to the officers as to who the bartender was that served her. The victim was an employee of the tavern. Medical personnel at the hospital found her blood alcohol level to be at .28, which is three times over the legal limit. Further investigation found the identity of the bartender who served the victim but she was no longer on scene when officers returned. The licensee Nicolas Monreal was not on scene either and officers contacted him by phone and advised him of what occurred and that he would be receiving a citation.
