I'm writing to express my support and enthusiasm for the new apartments on Hackett. I live in a small apartment (a few blocks away on Bradford), with my husband and four children.

I wish that the new apartments had some larger, family-sized units (Maryland Ave. is a wonderful school, a short walk away!), and that there wasn't so much parking (cities are for people, not cars!), but I know that more housing of all kinds is needed.

A denser neighborhood will benefit all the wonderful businesses along Downer. We should be welcoming many more people into this walkable, resource-rich neighborhood.

Thank you for your time!
