

RELEASE OF ALL CLAIMS

I, _____, for and in consideration of the promises contained in the settlement agreement of which this release is made a part, hereby waive and release any and all claims I may have, up through the date of this release, under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA), and the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act (OWBPA), against the City of Milwaukee, the Fire and Police Commission, and any and all other City departments or officers, arising from my status relative to the City's group health insurance plans, or my exclusion therefrom, as a Police Service Specialist. This release includes any claim for damages and attorney fees arising out of the facts and circumstances which gave rise to the complaint and charge of discrimination under the ADEA and OWBPA, alleged in EEOC Charge No. 260A10699; ERD Case No. CR2001-01280, which was filed on March 27, 2001 by ALEASP as my representative.

This release and waiver is made knowingly and voluntarily. I specifically acknowledge receipt of a copy of the settlement agreement. I have been advised to consult with an attorney, and have had an opportunity to consult with an attorney, prior to signing this release. I have had a reasonable period of time within which to consider the settlement agreement of which is release and waiver is a part.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this _____ day of _____, 2001.

Subscribed and sworn to before me
