He stated that they try to cover some of the food and he and his dad try to remind the employees. He added that sometimes they are too busy with only 2 people cooking and they miss things and make mistakes. He stated that there are only 4 employees total and he doesn't have money to hire more. He added that he hires someone to deep clean twice a week. He stated that he needs to stay open so he can pay his rent and support his family. He added that he's trying his best and wants to improve.

Individuals also present:

Ald. Spiker stated the premises received a 30 day suspension last year for similar issues. He added that he doesn't understand why the applicant can't clean up his act and why these violations keep happening. He stated that he understands that this is a trying time but these violations are a danger to the community, and damaging to the commercial corridor. He added that these problems just can't keep occurring. He recommends a 10 day suspension because of the continuing problems.

Carly Hegarty - Health Department stated there are ongoing compliance issues with the premises. She added that in 2020 there were no routine inspections because of COVID, but they did inspect when they received a complaint regarding pests. She stated that during the inspection the complaint was verified and the premises was issued orders to cease operations, and reopened later. She added that in January 2021 a routine inspection was conducted and they received a score of 62 which is a "B". She stated another routine inspection was conducted in June and they received a score of 61, which is a "B". She added that there were less priority violations in 2021 then there were in 2019. She stated this year they had 1 priority violation in January and 4 in June, 3 foundation violations in January and 1 in June, and 12 core violations in January and 8 in June.

Ald. Lewis moved reconsideration. (Prevailed 5-0)

The applicant stated he was unaware of the law about the ID cards, but he has taken care of it now. He added that he left paperwork for PO See at his office, but she parked her rusty car in the middle of the lot, and sat at his desk without wearing a mask in the middle of COVID. He stated that "if I had a dog", but he didn't threaten her because he has no dog, and told her to set up a meeting. He added that he tows from his landlord's private lot all the time, between 5-10 cars a week. He stated that he never touched the woman, she wouldn't get out of the car with her baby, and the police came and let him tow the car. He added that a tow is about $285, not $300 or $400. He stated that he wasn't aware that he had to submit receipts to the City. He added that this is how he feeds his family and he doesn't abuse that. He stated that he does good business with junk cars and has 4.9 on Google reviews. He added that he only tows from 2 lots and towing is not his main business. He stated that he undercharged Mr. Berger for his tow. He added that he pays his bills and taxes. He stated that he did nothing different with these 2 tows. He added that he didn't touch Ms. Jones or threaten her, but she was aggressive, shoved him, and threw his equipment. He stated that he was going to give her car back, but she made him sit there for 2 hours. He added that he missed his court case regarding the assault so he just paid the fine.

Individuals also present:

Ald. Zamarripa stated she does not support renewal of the Recycling, Salvaging, or Towing premises license based on the applicant's testimony and the neighborhood testimony.

Individuals present in opposition:

Adam Berger 15300 W Capitol Dr, Brookfield, WI stated he had a terrible interaction with the applicant. He added that he parked in a parking lot in an unmarked spot. He stated that this parking lot may have had a sign behind the vines, but it was designed to trick people. He added that the applicant didn't answer the phone and it is not good business practice. He stated that the applicant is entrapping and extorting people, and an employee told him that they would sic their dog on him. He added that not everyone can afford the $300-400 fee. He stated that he finally got a hold of someone, but he had to pay with cash, because they wouldn't take any other form of payment, and didn't receive a receipt.

Lakesha Jones 7911 S Long Meadow Dr, Oak Creek, WI stated she was picking up a donation for her non-profit and she parked in an unmarked spot for 2 minutes, and there were no "No Parking" signs clearly visible. She added that the applicant threatened her with gang violence in front of her 6 year old daughter, pushed her, and she had trouble sleeping for 2 weeks. She stated that her daughter was screaming and this was an experience no one should have to go through. She added that the applicant changed the price to $400 and would only take cash. She stated that she called the police and this was the worst experience of her life. She added that he jacked up her car while she and her daughter were inside the car. She stated that the applicant told her that "he would kill a bitch like her and go to jail for bitches like you." She added that she is concerned and afraid because the applicant lives in her neighborhood.

Ald. Lewis stated the applicant needs to manage his business properly because it will affect his livelihood.

Ald. Kovac stated that the applicant has a junk car business and there are no complaints about that or consensual towing. He added that non-consensual towing creates conflicts and the applicant doesn't have a good track record of handling conflict appropriately. He stated that the applicant made implied threats to a police officer and asking Mr. Berger if he thinks he can park anywhere because he has a nice car. He added that the applicant has been abusing the special equipment fee and overcharging people.

Ald. Dodd moved denial of the Recycling, Salvaging, or Towing Premises license application based on the police report, and applicant, aldermanic, and neighborhood testimony. (Prevailed 5-0)
