Carly,

On FB, from a post from 2022 - it says that their hours are 11a-8:30p, Mon-Sat. Is the city not requiring them to clean up the grease stains (pressure washing etc)?

Thx

Ultimately health can issue orders for the lack of a waste receptacle as well as liquid waste not being captured and held on premise until they return to their base for proper disposal. It does need to be verified at the time of our inspection in order for orders to be written.

I will keep you posted on what we find.

Alderman Westmoreland, do you know if this is a space they regularly park in to operate? I just want to be sure we do a couple of passes if they are not out there the first time.

Thanks again, we will be in touch,

Subject: RE: Food truck violations

Hey there,

Jumaane and I are chatting as we speak. So from our MHD department, we could issue a Special Inspection Report referencing this ordinance with a 30 day compliance for cleanup, they would get reinspection fees at each reinspection, (checked every 2 weeks- first is $125, $250, $375, $500) and at the 4th reinspection would be issued an Orders to Cease in addition to the fee if not addressed. Yes-this could be added to their licensing file when they come up for renewal.

Jumaane mentioned their department could also do some type of verbal order. MPD also has capabilities it sounds like with a PA-33. Again what is tricky is being able to tie it to the truck at the time of inspection. Our inspector went out yesterday to check on Mexi Cali and said at the time, it was a water leak and issued orders-attached- for both the leak and the waste receptacle. I am asking that when she goes back for the first reinspection she takes one of our Mobile Coordinators with to do another check for liquid waste. I do agree in the pictures you sent there seems to be liquid waste in the space.

I think the broader conversation to think on with these is if we want a dedicated enforcement mechanism for all things food trucks to not only stream line response but also have a regular clear go to place for all these issues, particularly late night like the tavern car. Madison has something like this. Due to the nature of these operations being mobile and the full range of hours it can make enforcement especially cumbersome. Just something to keep thinking on.

Alderman Westmoreland, let me know if you have any questions on the report. I will keep you posted on how the reinspections go.
