Wisconsin Injury Prevention

Rapid Response Project: Women & Opioids

- Primary prevention of opioid exposed pregnancies
- Comprehensive care for pregnant women with opioid use disorder

Opioid Harm Prevention Program Overview

Funded through the CDC grant: Prescription Drug Overdose: Prevention for States

Community Interventions

- Overdose fatality reviews
- Safe prescribing practices
 Multi-faceted,
- multi-disciplinary approach
 Support local health departments

Why We Care:

- Maternal opioid use during pregnancy
 - Comorbidity
- Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome

Prevent Opioid Harm

The Opioid Harm
Prevention Program
uses a multi-faceted approach to prevent opioid harm.

Why We Care:

- High rates of opioid prescriptions
- 75% of people who
- use heroin started with prescription drugs.

Policy Work:

- Statewide Standing Order for Naloxone
- Insurance coverage for alternative therapiesHOPE agenda

Why We Care:

- Opioid deaths
- Insurance barriers

Why We Care:

- Opioid Use Disorder
- Opioid overdose death and hospitalizations

PDMP Enhancements

- System's usability and utility
 - Prescribing practices
- Link PDMP with Electronic Health Records