Item: 1. 210894 Substitute resolution relating to the appropriation of the remainder of the first tranche of American Rescue Plan Act funds.

eComment: As a Milwaukee resident, I am writing in support of proposal #56 to increase parenting education and family support program known as Triple-P (Positive Parenting Program) in the city of Milwaukee. Triple P is a family support system with tools for parents to help develop more positive relationship with their children. During the pandemic families has been under stress, tension and anxiety. By increasing access to Triple P we believe we can help parents to manage their parent concerns, and to build a stronger and happier families. Supporting parents and caregivers is essential to improving the well-being and resiliency of communities. In Milwaukee that well-being and resiliency is tantamount given the exponential increase in violence over the last 2 years the city has experienced. Triple P is not a silver bullet to solve community and family violence, however is it one tactic in a much broader violence prevention and intervention strategy. The City of Milwaukee has an incredible opportunity to invest in families, and help parents build their own capacity to grow strong, resilient children. When our City invests in parents, we are investing in our future.
