ADDITIONAL COMMENTS/RECOMMENDATIONS:

While conducting the CPTED, it was apparent the licensee didn't know what she signed. She wasn't aware of the hours, the licensee she applied for and the questions I was asking her.

The building owner was telling her everything to say and giving her looks when she didn't understand how to answer.

The owner understood what char-boy was and stated he does sell it. He understood that it was used for drug use.

It was apparent this was some sort of agreement between the owner and the licensee.
