ALC is back in Washington, DC

The nation's leading policy conference is back and in-person on Wednesday, September 28, 2022, through Sunday, October 2, 2022, in \

This year's Annual Legislative Conference (ALC) theme is "Advancing Our Purpose. Elevating Our Power." 2022 is a year of action, and sp engagement is more crucial than ever as we face a pivotal election season in November.

For CBCF, 2022 is a year of reuniting and focusing on raising our voices and perspectives with pride as we engage and explore policy ar issues from a Black perspective. We are reinvigorated by the new hybrid ALC structure, with free virtual and on-demand offerings, and e in person for the first time since 2019. Join us at the the Walter E. Washington Convention Center for five days of premium programming including the Prayer Breakfast, National Town Hall, Phoenix Awards and Black Party.

We know that we are stronger together and look forward to assembling as a renewed and rejuvenated community of powerful voices c empowering, and mobilizing Black communities.

Early bird registration for the 51st Annual Legislative Conference begins Tuesday, June 28, 2022. See you there!

Health and Safety Requirements: Everyone attending the conference in person must verify that they are fully vaccinated and have received at least one booster. Participants are strongly encouraged to protect the community by wearing masks during indoor activities. See the Health and Safety page for details.
